

$433,370 Proposals At 3 Town Meetings

Residents To Act On Budgets, Levies; Set
Yearly Pay Tomorrow

Residents of the Quad-Cities will participate personally tomorrow in adopting township budgets and tax levies and conducting other township business at annual town meetings. Spending of $433,370 during the next year has been proposed.

Public hearings have been held in two of the townships and a hearing is planned for the third tomorrow in Granite City. The town meetings will take place at 2 p.m. in Granite City and Venice townships and at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday in Nameoki township.

Locations for transacting yearly business will be the city courtroom on the third floor of the city hall in Granite City, the city council room in the Venice city hall and the new Nameoki township office on Route 162, a quarter-mile east of Route 11.

Along with acting on the budgets and levies, voters of the three townships will hear annual reports, designate township at-torneys and set the pay of township officials for the fiscal year beginning March 28, 1961, and ending March 26, 1962.

DMRP, Dog Found Issues

Special business will include proposed participation in the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, to be conducted at both the Nameoki and Venice township meetings. Nameoki township voters also may act on proposed establishment of a dog pound and creation of the position of poundmaster.

Pay increases proposed include the following: Granite City assessor, $1200 increase, from $8000 to $9200; Nameoki township attorney, $600, from $1500 to $2100; Venice township supervisor, $200, $4500 to $4700; Venice town clerk, $600, $1200 to $1800; and Venice township attorney, $600, $1800 to $2400.

Proposed budgets of $433,370 in the three townships represent a net decrease of $1,051 from a year ago.

A breakdown of the $433,370 total shows $316,700 for relief, down $27,000; $112,735 for town funds, up $12,019; and $2535 for municipal retirement up $2835.

Township Totals
In Granite City township, the $171,650 proposal, down $2700, consists of $135,900 for general assistance, same as a year ago, and $35,750 for the town fund, down $2700.

Venice township's $190,825 proposed total, down $23,476, includes $154,120 for general assistance, down $27,980; $34,850 for the town fund, up $2650; and $1845 for municipal retirement, up $1845.

The Nameoki township total of $70,895, an increase of $15,175, consists of $28,680 for assistance, up $875; $31,125 for the town fund, up $13,110; and $1090 for municipal retirement, up $1090.

Man Drowns As Boat Upsets, 2 Reach Shore Here

The Mississippi River claimed the life of Robert Dean, 26, St. Louis, near the Venice approach to Merchants Bridge at 8 p.m. Saturday, but two other occupants of an 18-foot cabin cruiser reached the shore safely after it capsized.

John J. Halloran, 47, Northwoods, Mo., was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for exposure to the cold water, being transferred later to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis. Melvin Reckert, 32, St. Louis, was treated at the St. Louis City Hospital and by ambulance to St. Louis police by Venice police. Venice officers received first aid reports from the boat crew. The boat was not to be recovered. It was reported that the boat was overturned in the middle of the river. St. Louis police and the Coast Guard were notified.

Boat Flunks To Shore

While returning to Venice over the McKinley Bridge, police saw that the cruiser had floated upside down to within 100 feet of the Venice shore, about 100 yards south of the Merchants Bridge. Meanwhile, Halloran was brought to shore on the houseboat of Wilson Schroeder and was by ambulance to the local hospital.

Smith had been trapped inside a motorboat when it was overturned. He was found when a tow truck was used to turn the cruiser. Deputy Sheriff Francis Lacey is to conduct an inquest.

The boat had been purchased the same day by Reckert's brother, Donald, and the group put it in the water north of Venice, its forward gear failed and the boat was swamped while moving backward.

Smith was a St. Louis transport firm clerk. His home address was 3415a North 19th street.

15 Thefts Occur In Area Over Past Weekend

A series of thefts, including a car, a television set, a radio, a six from auto, two from homes and a strongarm, reported over the weekend by police, investigated by local and county authorities.

Mitchell Tavern Burglary

Burglars obtained lost worth $141, including $50 in cash, at Smith's tavern, Douglas drive, Mitchell, early Saturday morning. The sheriff's office was notified.

Assorted whiskey was taken along with candy. 15 cartons of cigarettes and the money.

An undetermined amount of money was taken from a cash box at the Cafe Rio, 1207 Nineteenth street, in a weekend burglary, police were notified at 8:25 a.m. Sunday.

The intruder apparently threw half of a brick through the front door glass while gaining entrance and was found by a back door, which was found open. The brick was found inside the building near the broken glass.

A lock on the cash box also was broken. James Erickson, 1214 E. 14th street, was notified.

Questions, Answers On Fluoridation Vote

Questions and answers on tomorrow's fluoridation election in Granite City:

Q. What is proposed?

A. The ballot will read: "Shall the City Council of the City of Granite City adopt a resolution approving the addition of fluoride to the water furnished in and to the city by the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Company?"

Q. What will be the effect of the vote?

A. The public's response probably will guide the city council in seeking or not seeking fluoridation. It is an advisory election and does not automatically decide the issue.

Details of Fluoridation

Q. What does fluoridation mean?

A. The American Dental Association says it is "the adjustment of the fluoride content in a public water supply to a desirable level for the prevention of dental decay."

Q. Is this complicated and dangerous?

A. No. The American Water Works Association says it is entirely safe, practical and economical. It comments that the procedure for adding fluoride is no more involved than the pro-

Car Leaves Route 67a At Curve, Man Killed

St. Louisian 5th Local Fatality Of Year; 19
Hurt During Weekend

The Quad-Cities' 1961 traffic fatality toll rose to five at 10:35 a.m. Sunday with a fatal crash on a "dead man's curve," Route 67a south of Madison, where a northbound auto failed to make the curve and overturned down the embankment, and through shallow water, and came to a halt 114 feet from the pavement. One man was killed and two other occupants, seriously injured, had to be extricated from the wreckage. Preparations for towing the vehicle are pictured. A straighter highway is under construction.

War Memorial Committee To Consider Bids

Members of the Granite City War Memorial Committee will meet at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank to consider bids for the erection of a memorial fountain in Triangle Park.

Scaled bids were opened at 4 p.m. Friday in the offices of Gabriel & Dugger, architects for the project, with the G. H. H. Co. submitting the low bid of $12,228. One other bid was received in the amount of $12,670 from M. H. Wolf & Co.

Five local contracting firms at one time held plans on the proposed project, which consists of a three-tiered, illuminated water fountain surrounded by walkways and set in the center of the triangular park which is bounded by Madison and Niedringhaus avenues and 21st street.

Concrete Co. plan holders, Skerle Concrete Co., S. M. Wilson & Co., and William Weiss & Co., do not submit bids on the proposal.

Bids On Alternates

Bids also were submitted on several alternates. They included the addition of a low pressure pump which would maintain a constant flow of water over the upper level of the fountain, the addition of various numbers of lights for a reflecting pool, the installation of concrete sidewalks around the fountain extending to the three corners of the park.

G. H. Sternberg & Co. bids on the alternates were $110 for the pump addition, $468, $688 and $808 on the light combinations and $2756 for walkways. M. H. Wolf & Co. bid $409 for the pump addition, $378, $842 and $1105 on the various light combinations and $2756 for the addition of walkways.

Milton Worthen, president of the Granite City War Memorial Committee who was present at the bid opening together with committee member H. D. Karandjoff, said bids were very much in line with what the committee has planned to spend for the memorial.

The city of Granite City has tentative plans to place a new concrete walk along the Madison avenue side of the park, where no walk exists presently, and to replace old walks along both Niedringhaus avenue and 21st street.

Most likely alternates to receive consideration by the memorial committee are the pump installation and the addition of lights for the reflecting pool, Worthen said.

If a contract is awarded, it will require from four to five weeks to order and receive the lights and special fountain hardware. The architectural firm said. The project is scheduled for completion late this summer if a contract is awarded at the committee's Wednesday meeting.

No Effect On Taxes

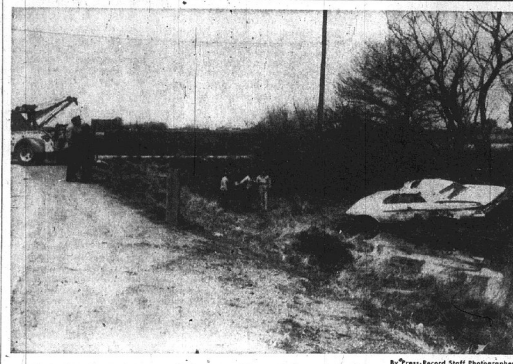

A. No. It will not have any effect on taxes. Added to the cost averages less than ten cents a person a year, often less than the cost of an ice cream cone.

Q. Conceding that it is inexpensive, safe and effective, why is fluoridation needed?

A. Youngsters — now and in their middle and old age — can and should have better teeth and better health, the American Dental Association believes. It says that "if the fluoride content of your community water supply is controlled, your children's future dental bills for fillings, extractions and replacements can be reduced. The cost of a single filling will pay for fluoride for one person for about 30 years."

Q. Many national organizations have been listed as urging Miracle Manor.

Kerner Seeks To Broaden Taxing Powers

(Special from Springfield)
 Two new state code departments, creation of two new state boards and revision of the revenue article of the state constitution to broaden taxing powers of the General Assembly, highlighted a special message by Gov. Otto Kerner to a joint session of state legislators last week.

The governor warned lawmakers if they failed to pass a new revenue article for submission to a statewide referendum he would call them back into special session next spring to take further action.

The governor's speech was addressed to a packed house and filled galleries. Most applause came from the Democratic side although his warm advocacy of legislation to create an Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission drew enthusiastic applause from both sides on the Republican side.

Reception was mixed with Democrats giving the talk an enthusiastic endorsement while Republicans leaders criticized the part with reference to revenue, saying it would give the state a blank check in writing new tax laws.

Comments On Tax Proposal
 House Republican Leader William E. Pollack, Chicago, said if Kerner's suggestion in regard to amendment of the revenue article were approved it would deprive taxpayers of "constitutional safeguards" against indiscriminate tax increases even to the enactment of a state income tax with out referendum approval.

Other GOP leaders, said it would leave the door wide open for a revenue amendment to be removed the present prohibition against increasing the state's bonded indebtedness to beyond five per cent of the total assessed valuation.

The new departments proposed by Kerner would be the Public Assistance Department to replace the present Public Aid Commission which is now under the supervision of State Welfare Department, and a State Mental Health Department.

Clark Breaks Precedent
 Ill. Sen. William Clark, Chicago, broke precedent for the first time in 30 years last week to appear before the State Supreme Court to personally argue a case against a state appeal from a Chicago superior court decision which exempted a lumber speculator from paying the state sales tax on lumber purchased for a home.

The boy was released after receiving emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Eight Suffer Minor Injuries
 The auto was headed northwest on 20th street and failed to stop, continuing on 20th after crossing the intersection, the victim related. It was a white over-blue 1952 or 1953 Plymouth.

exemption and cited an earlier high court decision in a case where the tribunal exempted an owner-contractor from paying the sales tax on plumbing supplies. Clark is the first attorney general to personally appear before the Supreme Court since the late Oscar Christman, Rock Island, who went before the court in the early thirties.

Highland Pins 7-1 Loss On Trojan Nine

Pitcher Don Murray of Highland contributed the big blow Thursday afternoon and gave up only four hits as the Bulldogs opened their Midwestern conference baseball season by beating Madison 7-1 in Highland.

Murray, pasted a base-loaded double which drove in three runs during a five-run third inning for the host Bulldogs. The blow came off Madison starter and loser Dan Troits.

Troits started strongly striking out four of the first six batters he faced, but his control deserted him in the third frame. The slender right-hander walked the first three batters he faced, and Murray followed with his timely two-base sock.

Madison's lone tally came in the top of the fourth when Catcher Dick Kismir singled, took second as the center-fielder inhibited the ball, and rode home on Mick Gravelle's base knock.

Madison managed only four hits, Kismir and Gravelle doubling them even as Gravelle replaced Troits and teamed with two out in the fifth, the frame in which Highland collected its two final runs. The Bulldogs had a total of seven hits.

In an abbreviated four-inning junior varsity game, the Highland resented early a 9-8 win. Catcher Sam Dymas led Madison hitters in this contest with a double and triple.

Coach Earl McClannahan plans to start Troits again today when Madison travels to Dupon, seeking its first victory in three games this spring. A Jayvee game will be played simultaneously on an adjoining diamond. Both contests begin at 4 p.m.

Holder Sparkles On Mound As Warriors Open Season With 8-7 Win Over Triad

Letthander Joe Holder's sparkling mound performance stood out as the highlight Thursday afternoon as Granite City high school successfully opened the spring baseball season with an 8-7 victory over Triad on the lower diamond.

Holder, wild in an intra-squad game earlier last week, pitched four complete innings of no-hit baseball and struck out 12 as the Warriors built an 8-1 lead early in the game.

Granite City's very nearly frittered it away in the sixth frame when the Knights counted six times by bunching all of the top section's batters and the game with four infield errors by Warrior reserves.

The only run off Holder came in the second inning when his control deserted him briefly and he walked three batters and hit a fourth. Grant Takemajan took over on the hill for GCHS in the fifth and became the victim of the sixth-inning Knight uprising. He shut out the host team in the fifth and seventh frames.

Becerra, Ybarra Win Bouts At Legion Show

Two Mexican Athletic Club boxers entered on Friday night's amateur boxing card at the American Legion Dugout in Venice. Becerra came away with decisions over opponents in three-round bouts.

In the feature bout, Joey Becerra marked his return to the amateur ring with a unanimous decision over Eugene Simmons, the 1961 Kansas City Golden Gloves champion at 130 pounds.

In a 118-pound novice division bout, Joey Ybarra won a split decision over Orlando Burton of Sportsman's AC. In a return match, Burton had defeated Ybarra earlier this year in the St. Louis Golden Gloves tournament.

The third local fighter scheduled on the card, Connie Ybarra, did not enter the ring after his 112-pound novice opponent, Percy Hollins of Sportsman's, failed to pass the pre-fight physical. Hollins was suffering from tonsillitis.

In other bouts on the Legion-sponsored program, Willie Deaton of Sportsman's won a split decision over John Smith of Venice.

In the 135-pound open division, Ouis Cane of Pal AC was a unanimous winner over Justice

Hebold of Sportsman's in a 126-pound novice three-rounder, and Fred West of Pal AC defeated Charlie Faye of Sportsman's in the 160-pound open division.

Horseshoe Lake Pollution Reported; Fishermen Told Not To Eat Catches

Private and commercial fishermen were cautioned today by William Nichols, president of the Horseshoe Lake Landowners Association, against selling or eating fish taken from Horseshoe Lake pending further investigation of alleged water pollution there.

Nichols, who operates a fish market on the lake, said live fish which he sold to an East St. Louis family Friday may have been the cause of the illness of all six members of the family, which was termed food poisoning by the East Side Health District.

The family has recovered, Nichols said, but several government agencies are today continuing the investigation of the cause of a severe fish "kill" in the lake which was first noticed by residents of the lake area Thursday.

A preliminary check by biologists from the Department of Conservation reported showed an average of one dead fish per foot along a three-mile length of shoreline at the lake; another "kill" of similar proportions occurred in January, but was not so noticeable due to heavy snow, Nichols said.

To Obtain More Samples
The U. S. Department of Agriculture will obtain samples of the fish today, and tests of them will be conducted in Chicago. The Illinois Sanitary Water Board also has requested fish samples.

According to Roy Lockhart, Conservation Dept. biologist, the present fish "kill" was caused by sodium cyanide poisoning, source of which is being sought through the tests.

The biologist reported that all the fish which were first noticed by residents of the lake area Thursday.

Owner Sees Auto, Helps Capture Young Thieves
Two local boys are in custody at the county jail today after being apprehended for theft of the auto of Mr. and Mrs. George Vincent, Chouteau Slough road, at 5 p.m. Friday.

types of fish in the lake seem to be affected, including catfish, bass, crappie, blue gill, carp and buffalo.

The investigating agencies will attempt to determine if any of the fish were killed by causes other than sodium cyanide poisoning, Nichols said. He added that an industrial waste product is dumped into a ditch about 50 yards from the lake.

Nichols said commercial fishermen who generally take their catches from the lake are purchasing fish elsewhere until such a time as the present conditions can be corrected.

He urged residents of the Horseshoe lake area to warn sportsmen and private fishermen against eating fish they catch from the lake.

Nichols said conservation agents at first felt that ingestion of fish from the lake would not cause illness to humans, "unless the fish were taken in large quantities over an extended period of time."

But the resulting illness of the family has caused them to revise their opinion. Nichols stressed that the fish which he had said were fish catches and were still alive at the time of sale.

FELLOW CITIZEN AND VOTER:

Tomorrow is election day. For the past weeks I have presented to you my candidacy for the office of Mayor of Granite City.

I have stated why I think we need to replace the present administration and what I will do if you entrust that replacement to me. Through the Press-Record and other means I have presented my platform and program for our city. Those statements are my pledge. Compare these to my opponents. Study carefully what was said and when it was said. On the basis of such consideration you choose as to whom will receive your vote.

I have served my community to the best of my ability. Those who know me best have honored me with their highest offices. I have served as Master of Masonic Lodge 835, Exalted Order of the Elks, president of various clubs and organizations of which I am a member, Trustee and Ruling Elder in my church. I will be most happy to have you base your evaluation of my character, conduct, and ability on the word of those who KNOW me, those with whom I have worked intimately.

Go with me to the Polls. Let us both vote our convictions and serve our city.

TO MY FRIENDS AND VOTERS OF GRANITE CITY:

You have given me the privilege of serving as Superintendent of Streets in Granite City. I have done this to the best of my ability and I want to continue to do this.

I sincerely believe my job can best be done by Granite City electing a new Mayor. I want a Mayor who has an interest in the city streets, the sewage and drainage needs of Granite City. I want a man who will ride the streets with me occasionally and know the needs first hand.

I have known the candidate I am supporting for 25 years. I know him to be a man of the highest character. I would never support him if he was not that type of man. I deplore the gutter tactics of the lowest type of politics that starts, circulates and promotes false and malicious rumors. This candidate does not have commitments to or support from Madison or any other pressure group. You can cast your vote with confidence for this man.

I believe the man to elect is PAT RICH. I encourage and urge my friends and supporters to back and support the man who CAN WIN and will give us the administration we need for good government.

MORE ABOUT

15 Thefts Occur

2021 Cleveland blvd., was listed as part owner of the restaurant.

Flies From Store With Ring.
A youth about 16 years old asked to view a ring at the Hudson jewelry store in the 1900 block of State street at 8:29 p.m. Friday and then ran out of the store with it before he could be stopped by an employee.

The man's ring was of red onyx, with a gold letter "B" in the center, and it was set in a gold band, police were told.

Gas Station Burglary.
A thief threw an auto horn button through a window to gain entrance at Thrasher Bros. Service Station, 14th street and Edwardsville road, according to a report made Friday morning to Granite City police. Taken was between $15 and $20 in coins.

Harvey Thrasher said the burglary occurred after 8:30 p.m. Thursday that the entrance was gained after a pane of glass in an overhead door had been broken out. The money was taken from a cash register change drawer that had been placed under a desk.

A coin box was pried from a soda machine at the Madison Laundromat, 602 Madison avenue, it was discovered at 9 a.m. Sunday. The box was thrown into a washing machine, and an employee was unable to determine whether any coins had been taken.

An attempted break-in at Branding's Service Station, Niedringhaus and railroad tracks, was reported last night. Police said a front door glass pane was broken but entrance was not gained.

Newspaper Robbed Of $146.
A newspaper, who was walking home with his profit yesterday morning after making his payment at the distributor's office, was jumped by an older boy who robbed him of $1.66.

The newspaper, Ray Henry, 10, of 2035 Illinois avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henry, told police he was with 11-year-old Junior Pughett, and they were walking along 20th street, when a larger boy came out of the alley between Adams and Benton streets and demanded their money.

The boys said they were overpowered by the bigger boy and went through their pockets and took the $1.66 from the Henry boy before they could break away and run. They described their assailant as being about five-foot, four inches tall, wearing blue jeans and either a green or yellow shirt and having reddish brown hair.

Police searched the area with the two youths but were unable to find the bigger boy.

2 Wheels Taken Off Car.
Wheel thieves used jacks from the trunk of the 1951 auto of Daniel Mastain to steal the two front wheels and tires off the auto Thursday night.

Mastain, who lives at Roxana, discovered the theft at midnight. He told police he found his auto locked up on the 17th and Madison avenue lot at Granite City Steel Co. He explained the lock had been broken on the trunk of his car.

Two reports of tire and wheel thefts from parked cars were reported yesterday to Granite City police. Leonard Beile, 109 Benton street, said his 1958 auto was parked in front of his home when the theft occurred. He reported the theft, 2139 Washington avenue, said his car also was parked in front of his home. Both said the thefts apparently occurred Saturday night.

32-Footer Trailer Stolen.
Theft of a 32-foot flatbed trailer, a 1955 model painted green, was reported Thursday to Granite City police by a representative of the M. C. Slater Truck Co., St. Louis. Police were told the trailer was taken during the past three weeks from a lot at Charles street and Edwardsville road.

Stolen Coins Recovered.
The owner refused to disclose

Seeks Probation

(Special from Springfield)

A probation hearing is set for April 21 at Springfield for Larry Kahle, who today appeared before Sangamon County Circuit Judge Creel Douglas and pleaded guilty to a burglary indictment. The case was referred to the Sangamon county probation officer.

The hearing was held Friday when police arrested a 23-year-old Granite City man and recovered four coats which had been reported stolen from a parked car.

The theft was reported by A. D. Hall, 1513 Pontoon road, who said the coats were taken from his unlocked auto while it was parked at his home. Recovered were a woman's coat, two men's jackets and a boy's sport coat.

873 Stolen From Car.
E. R. Canady, 2412 Illinois avenue, reported to Granite City police on Friday that $73 had been stolen from his auto Wednesday night when the car was parked at his home. Taken was a grey handbag which contained a wallet with seven $10 bills and three $1 bills.

Beagle Stolen.
A six-month-old white and brown beagle dog was stolen from the shed of William Hoffman, 2228 East 24th street, Thursday, police were notified the next day. The thief had been entered by a burglar. A pump shotgun was the only article found to be missing.

Man Fined, Rifle Bullets Travels Through House

Steve Whittier, 42, of 318 Weaver street, Venice, was fined $20 Saturday for discharging firearms after a bullet from his .30-30 rifle went through all walls and partitions in the home of Willie Dumas, 328 Weaver, at 6:40 a.m. Friday. No one was injured.

Whittier said he fired at a Venice man who had caused a disturbance at his apartment, threw a rock at Whittier and ran up Weaver street. A charge of property destruction was dismissed.

Auto Tires Deflated

The two front tires of the auto of Louis Bube, 2113 Delmar avenue, were deflated by removing the valve cores while the car was parked at his home, police determined while checking the vandalism report at 10:28 p.m. Saturday. There was no apparent damage.

License Plate Charges.
Charles Maxwell, 31, of 1017 Reynolds street was arrested by Madison police at 10:45 a.m. Sunday for lack of state license plates on two motor vehicles. He posted cash bond and was released until a hearing Saturday.

APRIL 4th IS JUDGMENT DAY

Will the Verdict Be In Favor of Economy, Efficiency and Integrity in City Government? It Will Be a Matter of Judgment.

On April 4th you will vote for a candidate for Mayor — a man who should be the leader of our city for the next four years.

Two of the candidates have had an active part in the BIG SPEND — the excessive costs of buildings and supplies — excessive fees paid for services and the Free-Loading on the City Pay Rolls — HIGHEST TAXES EVER.

Two of the candidates have had no experience in city management. In either case, can you HONESTLY EXPECT anything less than increased operating costs, increased fire insurance rates and HIGHER TAXES?

You can use your own GOOD JUDGMENT and vote for the candidate with the best qualifications on the same basis that all successful businesses or industries employ a manager.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF JUDGMENT

CHARLES W. MOERLIEN is the only candidate for Mayor WHO IS TRULY PLEDGED TO YOU, TO STOP THE BIG SPEND, PLEDGED TO OPERATE THE CITY FOR THE CITIZENS OF GRANITE CITY AND NOT FOR ANY POLITICAL BOSS OR MACHINE.

CHARLES W. MOERLIEN is a property owner and taxpayer. He has a lovely wife and their eleven children have attended and graduated from Granite City Schools. Five of their children have been active members of school bands. Five of the Moerliens boys volunteered and served honorably in the Armed Services during World War II and the Korean Conflict. (Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force).

Charles W. Moerlien has been an active Union officer for more than 30 years. He is at present, PRESIDENT OF RAILWAY EMPLOYEES UNITED, an organization of participating members of twenty-three railroad unions. He is also chairman of the Legislation and Education Board on the ILLINOIS TERMINAL - GMAO - NICKEL PLATE AND WABASH RAILROADS.

MOERLIEN'S RECORD as a FORMER ALDERMAN and MAYOR READS LIKE THIS:

1. Helped work out a compromise program that paid off more than $700,000.00 in delinquent improvement bonds at a considerable saving to property owners.
 2. As Chairman of a Special Committee helped work out a co-operative financing plan for a new Modern Pumping Station at a considerable saving to all taxpayers.
 3. Sponsored the legislation that made the Ridgedale and Kirkpatrick Homes possible.
 4. Established a Working Cash Fund that draws interest from the banks, and is available when used, instead of high interest rate anticipation warrants.
 5. Arranged the FIRST and ONLY Joint Memorial Services ever held in Granite City in Honor of the Men and Women of our Armed Services that made the Supreme Sacrifice for Democracy. This service was participated in, by representatives of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths.
 6. Arranged the FIRST JOINT LABOR DAY PARADE AND CELEBRATION in Granite City of Unions in the AFL and CIO.
 7. FIRST MAYOR in Madison County to secure an agreement with local banks to pay interest on the City Money on deposit with the banks. This interest paid by the banks to the city, has amounted to more than $100,000.00 and should have been used to reduce taxes instead of squandered in the BIG SPEND.
 8. Negotiated the FIRST Electric Light Franchise that provided for ONE-HALF of ALL STREET LIGHTS FREE (including whetway). This amounts to a saving for the taxpayers of more than $150,000.00 since the agreement.
 9. FIRST MAYOR in Madison County to initiate the Illinois Municipal Retirement Plan for all city employees.
 10. Paid of $170,000.00 in Bonded Indebtedness, purchased new equipment for all departments of the city (with no increase in taxes). Purchased reconditioned street signs for all city streets and the Inhalator Ambulance in Fire Department without the use of any tax money.
 11. Police Department was rated among the best in the State of Illinois. (FBI)
 12. Fire Insurance was in the Group 6 rate — with the BIG SPEND the insurance rate rose up to the Group 7 rate, which means HIGHER FIRE INSURANCE COSTS ALONG WITH THE BIG SPEND.
- ALL OF THIS WITHOUT SALES TAX, PARKING METERS OR ANY INCREASE IN TAXES. ALL OF THIS WITH THE LOWEST TAXES IN THE LAST TWENTY YEARS. WILL YOU VOTE TO PAY OFF THE HUGE POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS OR VOTE FOR THE CANDIDATE PLEDGED TO STOP THE BIG SPEND?

It's ALL A MATTER OF JUDGMENT

LARGE ENROLLMENT
C. E. Townsend, Editor
Granite City Press-Record
1817 Delmar Avenue,
Granite City, Illinois

Dear Mr. Townsend:
On behalf of the Granite City Civil Defense organization, I wish to express our sincere appreciation to the Granite City Press-Record for the wonderful publicity given by your paper, preceding the start of our first "Basic Civil Defense" course on Tuesday, March 28, 1961, at the old fire station on Nineteenth Street.

Special thanks and praise are extended to Mr. Jule Bartels of your staff, whose thoughtfulness and consideration were a major factor in the encouraging response we received for our initial class.

Knowing your interest in all phases of civic welfare, you will be pleased to hear that 78 interested participants registered for the five weekly sessions.

Civil defense education by its very nature, is of an unwavering task and the only solution, as in many things, appears to be prolonged "nagging" in an effort to awaken the people to the dangers of apathy. I personally feel that this grand response shows a realization and awareness in our community to the gruesome possibilities of an atomic attack.

As was said many times by our former President and by this nation's top military spokesmen, "all the retaliatory powers of the mightiest Air Force or Army are valueless without a public alertness in home preparedness and basic survival tactics."

Thanks once again to the
GEORGE W. SCUMACHER

THANKFUL PARENT
PRAISES SCHOOL NURSES
Mr. C. E. Townsend
Granite City Press Record
Dear Sir:

I wonder if most people are aware of the excellent job performed by our public school nurses?

During the winter, my child was one of many who had his eyesight and hearing tested, had throat examinations, and numerous other things that are routine with a school nurse's work. These things, along with the skinned knees and everyday things that happen during a school day.

I am glad to have such a service in our schools, and my hat is off to all school nurses 100%, for the fine work that they do.

A THANKFUL PARENT.

URGES SUPPORT
OF 4TH WARD ALDERMAN
Mr. C. E. Townsend:
Dear Sir:

With your permission, once again, I am taking this means to get something off my chest. I am not only 2nd Ward Alderman but a City Alderman as well, so I feel free to speak out concerning some political skulduggery. I believe is being promoted in another ward. It is my humble opinion, that there is a concentrated effort by a political force to defeat one of the better Aldermen in the City. The Alderman I am referring to is Paul Rutledge, who now represents the people of the 4th ward and is running for reelection.

For the past six years, I have had the pleasure of working with this man, and have found him to be a tireless and conscientious worker, not only for the people of the City as a whole. He has served on several of the city committees, as a chairman or as a committee member. As a prime example, he is now and for the last several years, served as Chairman of the Finance Committee. He, along with others, has led the fight to cut the City budget, while he has automatically resulted in a reduction in the City tax bill.

When the people receive their City tax bill this year, they will find it has been reduced approximately 11 percent. This, along with other of his numerous efforts, is why, in my most humble opinion, I am sure the city needs more Aldermen of the caliber of Paul Rutledge.

SAYS PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS
EASE TAX BURDEN
Dear Editor:

I'm sure that the letter written by "Protestant American" made many people think and perhaps laugh a little.

I wonder what would happen if suddenly all the parochial schools in Granite City, Sacred Heart, St. Joseph's and St. Elizabeth's, announced in August that they had decided not to open their doors in the fall.

Would the public school, with their now bulging sides, absorb 1500 children as easily as this writer seems to think?

I sincerely agree with President Kennedy but I also think that it should be realized that these many children are being taken care of by our parochial schools alone. I think it eases the tax situation considerably and should be appreciated.

Thank you very much,
GAIL GARGAC.

None Hurt In Four Auto Mishaps In Madison

No injuries were listed among four auto accidents in Madison on Friday and Saturday.

Autos driven by Clifton H. Cussey, 30, of 944 Niedringhaus avenue and Richard Foote, 35, of 112 Greenville street, Venice, collided at Third street and Madison avenue at 3 a.m. Saturday, with minor damage resulting.

A hit-and-run accident was reported by William R. Kearns, 34, of 2335 East 24th street, driver of an eastbound car struck by another auto at 1:15 a.m. Saturday at Edwardsville road and Alton avenue. Kearns said the other car hit the left rear fender and sped off. A hubcap and headlight rim from the westbound auto were found at the scene.

Cars driven by John R. Knapp, 27, St. Louis, and Robert Romanic, 19, of 1823 Edwardsville road, Madison, collided at Edwardsville road and McCambridge avenue at 11:15 p.m. Friday. Police said Romanic was attempting to make a left turn.

Failure of a steering mechanism was blamed for the crash of a car driven by Leonard J. Wichmer, 47, St. Louis, and a parked car at 1331 Madison avenue at 4:45 p.m. Friday. Wichmer told police he was headed south on Madison avenue when he lost control of his car. The parked auto was owned by Mrs. Cora Clayton of that address.

Charged In Warrant

Granite City police booked William Dollins, 22, of 1038 Third street, Venice, at 7:12 p.m. Saturday on a warrant signed by his wife, Sandra, charging disorderly conduct and peace disturbance. He was released on $32 bond until a hearing next Saturday.

Accident At Drive-In

A car driven by Chester Peach, 38, of 1317 Oriole street, Venice, backed into and damaged a speaker unit in a drive-in located at Lee's Grill, 1623 Madison avenue, police were notified at 5:30 a.m. Sunday. The rear of the auto sustained damage.

HOSPITAL NOTES

600 Attend Noon Services On Good Friday

Annual Good Friday noonday services in which Quad-City churches participated were well attended despite inclement weather which kept many worshippers home.

More than 350 persons gathered at Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church for the interdenominational service sponsored by the Tri-City Ministerial Association at which Dr. Harold Daniels, Springfield, Ill., a Church of the Nazarene pastor, spoke on "The Power of the Cross."

Special music was furnished by members of the Granite City high school chorus and the Youth Choir of Niedringhaus Memorial Church, with ministers of the participating churches taking part. The speaker was introduced by Rev. Paul Evans, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church, Ministerial Association president.

A Lutheran Bureau-sponsored service took place at the Washington Theatre with approximately 250 members of Concordia, Hope and St. John Lutheran Churches attending.

Music in keeping with the Easter season was furnished by the Senior Choir of St. John Lutheran, Pastor Samuel Rode directing, and the featured speaker was Pastor Alfred Buis, of Hope Church. His theme was "Willing To Die." The benediction was given by Pastor Arvin Twietmeyer of the Concordia Church.

Autos Collide

Autos driven by Leo M. Stevens, 60, of 2969 E. 24th, and Rita C. Tindall, 17, of 1701 Courtney ave., collided Thursday evening at 24th and Iowa streets. Police said Stevens was driving south on Iowa street, while the Tindall car was going west on 24th street.

Auto Destroys Mailbox

A car driven by a resident of Dallas, Tex., collided with a mailbox at the base and demolished the mailbox atop it about 6:30 a.m. Saturday in a yard of Dallas, Tex., 2036 N. 10th. The mailbox, which was believed to have been damaged about the right front, was informed Saturday afternoon.

Boy Bitten By Dog

Mrs. Robert Cook, 2700 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported to Granite City police yesterday that her eight-year-old son, Keith, had been bitten by a dog and had been treated by the family physician. Police notified the owner of the dog and the animal was tied.

Justus Runge, Brother Of Local Resident, Dies

Justus "Jesse" Runge, 72, East St. Louis, brother of Harry Runge, Granite City, died at 8:50 a.m. Saturday at Christian Welfare Hospital, East St. Louis. Services were held at 3 p.m. today at an East St. Louis funeral home. Burial was at Valley Burial Park, East St. Louis.

Speeding Arrest

Arrested at 11:32 p.m. Friday for speeding in the 3100 block of Madison avenue, Robert R. Durban, 17, of 2029 Dewey avenue was released on $11 bond pending a hearing.

Stoptail Charge

Charged with running a flashing red light at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues at 12:48 a.m. Sunday, Marion L. Collins, 18, Engineer Depot, was released on his driver's license until a hearing this week.

The week of April 2nd thru 8th is JAYCEE WEEK in Granite City. The Jaycees are a non-profit group of young men developing leadership qualities while helping improve the community through varied projects. We are an organization stressing fellowship and giving young men a chance to associate with the other young men "on the way up." We co-operate with the City, the Chamber of Commerce and other groups in many ways, but are in no way affiliated with these groups. We are connected with 9000 Jaycees in 163 similar local chapters in Illinois — with more than 200,000 Jaycees in 3,400 local chapters throughout the nation — with more than 300,000 Jaycees in 80 countries throughout the free world.

THE JAYCEE CREED

WE BELIEVE: That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life; That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise; That government should be of laws rather than of men; That earth's great treasure lies in human personality; And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

New Building In GC During First Quarter Tops 1960

With 13 permits valued at $272,427 issued last week in Granite City, the total value for the month topped the million-dollar mark for the first time this year, reaching $1,189,230.

The added permits also increased the total value of new construction during the first quarter of 1961 to $1,853,213, as compared to $1,080,605 for the same period of 1960. During the three-month period, 128 permits were issued, including 30 for new dwellings, as compared to 144 permits with 28 for homes during the first quarter of last year.

Largest permit issued last week was for the addition at Concordia Lutheran Church, 2301 Grand avenue. It was issued to G. H. Sternberg Co. in the amount of $131,300.

Jaycees To Give Award At 'Bosses' Night' Banquet

A Junior Chamber of Commerce distinguished service award will be presented for the first time to a Granite Cityan for outstanding community service during the "Bosses' Night" banquet sponsored by the Jaycees at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Rose Bowl Restaurant.

Identity of the recipient is not yet known. Selection will be made by the Jaycees of a young man between the ages of 21 and 35.

Principal speaker will be John McBride, vice-president and plant manager of the TriStar Starch & Refining Co. Guests expected to attend are Jaycee State President Earnings "Pete" Peters, of Springfield; Mayor Leonard R. Davis; and Harlan Dobry, executive director of the "Tri-Cities Chamber" of Commerce.

William Robertson is chairman of a committee planning the affair. More than 80 persons, including Jaycees and their employers are expected to attend.

GEORGE WHEELER JUNIOR RA MEETING

A "ranking" meeting of George Wheeler Junior Royal Ambassadorial was held in Second Baptist Church Saturday, with David Newberry, ambassador-in-chief, calling the meeting to order. After prayer by Fred Burkhardt, director, and Bob Lewis, counselor, the ranking ceremony was held, with Gary Winger and Ernest Tooley taking part.

The counselor awarded a pin to Danny Penrod, who enlisted the most boys in the last quarter.

After adjournment, the group attended an Easter egg hunt in Triangle Park. Present were Richard Welby, Oscar and Ernest Tooley, Eugene Dine, Kenneth Reeves, Tommy Freeman, Bruce Green, Ricky Smith and a new member, Michael Fuller. Visitors were Phillip Laswell, David Thiel, Dennis Mitchell, Terry Whitehead, Randy Miller, Gregory Lewis, Nathan Bailey and Claude Franklin.

Publisher Chairman Of Area JA Banquet May 17

Richard H. Amberg, publisher of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat has been named general chairman for the annual Junior Achievement of the Mississippi Valley area annual "Future Unlimited" banquet, it was announced today by Wayne Lutgens, president of the JA of the Mississippi Valley.

About 2000 Junior Achievement members and business, civic and industrial leaders are expected to attend the banquet, which is the climax of the JA year and is to be held May 17 at the St. Louis Arena.

Amberg has served on the Mississippi Valley area JA advisory council for the past four years. The area includes JA centers in the Quad-Cities, Altoona, Junior Achievement company, St. Louis and East St. Louis, and companies were active this year.

The banquet is designed to honor outstanding Junior Achievement members and some 600 volunteer adult advisors who serve as guides and counselors to the students' miniature companies.

Driving Suspension For Local Resident

A suspension of driving privileges for a local area resident was announced over the week-end from the office of Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter.

The suspension, for reason of three traffic violations was listed for Michael L. Sparks, Post Office Box 57, Mitchell.

VIET-NURSING HOME

The Wynnewood class of the Second Baptist Church visited the Madison county nursing home Saturday. Refreshments were served to 29 residents, and Easter baskets were given to shut-ins.

Those going were Mesdames Evelyn Smith, Dorothy Barnes, Ethel Cox, Mavis Moore, Laverne Fennell and Mary Grote. Miss Bonnie Fennell and Miss Irene Broadway.

Upton Gardner, Troy, Ill., a former local resident and an associate in the Galtung-Gardner grocery, 2237 Illinois avenue, was released Wednesday from the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, where he spent ten days for a general examination and x-rays.

Riskovsky-Gross Wedding Held Saturday

Miss Vickie Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gross of Bell City, Mo., became the bride of James Riskovsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Naum Riskovsky, 3517 Sixth street, Madison, Saturday afternoon.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Lurton George at the Church of Christ in Granite City.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon. The fitted bodice had a subtle neckline outlined with sequins and pearls, and the long fitted sleeves came to points at the wrists. The full skirt featured an underskirt made of ruffles of lace which was seen through the nylon overskirt. The bottom of the skirt was scalloped all around.

A small crown made of sequins and seed pearls held securely the fingertip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white pom-poms and carnations with greenery.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Helena Powell, sister of the groom, chose a navy blue and nylon dress. The bodice was fitted with a small string straps with an overskirt and layers of nylon ruffling. The ballerina-length gown was worn with clear plastic shoes. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Richard Rokita served as best man. The bridesmaid was Justina Weldon, and the groomsmen, Keith Makler.

Miss Weldon wore a gown of embroidered brocade nylon with tight-fitting bodice and small string straps with a full ballerina-length skirt. Clear plastic shoes were worn. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Riskovsky, the groom's mother, wore a pink lace dress complemented with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The groom is employed at the Madison Auto Parts in Madison and the bride at the Big Top. The couple will reside at the home of the groom's parents.

A reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riskovsky for close friends and relatives.

Kickoff Banquet Tonight Marks Opening Of Community Concert Membership Drive

St. John Lutheran Church, 2301 St. Clair avenue, will be the scene tonight of a kickoff banquet marking the beginning of the Tri-City Community Concert Association's annual membership drive.

The association has set a goal of 300 memberships, and is hoping for 1000, according to Mrs. E. J. Griffith, membership chairman. Membership assessments are used to finance the local appearance of nationally prominent cultural and musical groups and individual instrumental and vocal soloists.

About 150 membership drive workers, plus concert goers and friends of the association are expected to attend the banquet, which begins at 6:30 p.m.

Address By Karandjef: They will hear an address by Henry D. Karandjef, local banker, who will be one of two recipients of the elite achievement award sponsored by the Associated Retailers. Mr. Karandjef will speak on the importance of continuing and expanding local cultural and civic betterment programs.

Mrs. Margaret Warwick, national concert association representative from New York City will also address the gathering and will later confer with workers and trustees of the local association.

Robert D. Todoroff is president of the association, and an instrumental group originated and directed by him, the Coolidge Junior high school Latin American Rhythmic Ensemble, will provide musical entertainment at the dinner.

Mrs. Albert Froelich, dinner chairman, said decorations prepared by Eugene Aissi, art department director of the City high school, will carry out an Hawaiian motif, and that guests will receive surprise ceramic gifts from the decorators. The dinner will be served by women of St. John Church. Rev. Samuel Boda will invoke the blessing.

Concert Workers The list of nearly 150 workers engaged in soliciting new memberships and the renewal of old memberships includes:

Easter Egg Hunt Held For Retarded Youngsters

An Easter egg hunt for retarded children in this area was given Saturday by Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority at St. John Lutheran Church of Christ on Nameoki road.

The two and one-half hour program featured games led by the sorority members, followed by the egg hunt with the children divided into groups according to their ages. The eggs were hidden on the church lawn and in the garden. Refreshments were served to the children and their parents. Approximately 40 children were present.

Colligan Winner In Mathematics Contest

Kevin Colligan, son of Mrs. J. P. Colligan, 2133 Cleveland hwy., and the late James Colligan, captured the first-place Class A certificate in the annual division of mathematics competition involving 250 ninth grade students Saturday at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

He is a freshman at Assumption high school, East St. Louis, and his school's entries placed second in the team rankings. He is a graduate of St. Joseph's school here.

No Damage In Fire Call

No damage resulted from an overheated oil stove at the home of Carl Shaffer, 3152 4th avenue, at 12:17 a. m. Saturday. Five men from the Nameoki road station reported.

Tip on Shopping Meats

A good practice to establish in marketing for meats is to choose from as many different types of meat as possible for the week. You will usually find good buys in all kinds of meat. During February, well fed lambs are moving into our markets in good supply. This fine flavored meat, planned into one meal a week can be economical and enjoyable as a new approach to adding interest to meat time.

Great Loaves are always a dinner-time favorite. Pictured above is an unusual loaf, made with lamb and topped with a chili-flavored hollandaise sauce. Ground lamb is easy on the pocketbook for the budget-conscious homemaker. It comes from the breast or the shoulder and can be used for patties, stuffing and meatballs as well as the popular loaf.

Combine lamb, milk, crumbs, onion, salt and pepper; mix well. Press into 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 1 hour, or until done. Turn out of pan and drain off drippings. Meanwhile, combine chili sauce and hollandaise sauce; mix well. Cook over low heat to serving temperature. Serve lamb loaf with sauce.

State Capitol NEWS

Among bills signed into law by Gov. Otto Kerner were House Bill 128, appropriating $1,500,000 for completion of an institution for the mentally retarded in Centralia, and House Bill 156, making an additional appropriation of $5,100,000 to the Auditor of Public Accounts for the transportation of school children and paying into the teachers' retirement fund.

Gov. Kerner announced Illinois' Civil War Centennial Commission will not attend the National Civil War Centennial commemoration of the firing on Fort Sumter in Charleston, S. C., April 11 and 12 because all members will not be welcome at the ceremony. New Jersey and New York have also withdrawn from participation in the ceremony.

"We are hopeful that the National Committee will be able to make arrangements so that all members can attend," Gov. Kerner stated. "If so, we will be happy to participate in the commemoration. However, as events now stand our ten-member commission, an official agency of the State of Illinois, will not attend the Charleston event."

"We believe that the centennial observance of this event which started the Civil War, offers an opportunity for a reflective study of 'one of the most critical periods in our nation's history. It also presents an occasion to renew our dedication to the principles of our Constitution and the Declaration of Independence."

"We cannot ignore the fundamental precept of equality for all people and still represent Illinois, the State of Abraham Lincoln."

Exhibition classes for children at the 1961 Illinois State Fair will include tray gardens, terrariums and weedicapes. Mrs. Maurine Evans, superintendent of children's day activities said the terrarium can be made with bottle or fish bowl. Tray gardens make use of a serving tray.

which tiny flowering plants and accessories are arranged to form a landscape. Weedicapes can be made with art paper or sandpaper on which pressed weeds or wild shrubbery are applied to form artistic pictures.

A special floriculture class for young people under 14 also has been added. Other classifications with cash awards are offered. Information can be obtained by writing Illinois State Fair, Springfield.

Gov. Kerner and Dr. Francis J. Gerty, director of the Illinois Department of Public Welfare, last week announced release of $80,854,949 for public welfare construction during the next two years. The released funds, part of the $150 million dollar Public Welfare bond issue approved by voters last November, will finance construction for 2702 new beds and replacement of 1344 beds in public welfare hospitals, schools and institutions over the state.

The governor also announced that the General Assembly will be asked to appropriate $12,625,000 in emergency funds to begin immediate construction at the Lincoln and Dixon schools for the mentally retarded.

Other releases of $114,698 to the state welfare department approved by the governor are for repairs, modernization and improvements to buildings and service facilities at the institutions in Peoria, Jacksonville, Wilmington, East Moline and Chicago.

Appointments announced by Gov. Kerner include: Dr. Arthur E. Wright, Barrington, as superintendent of the Industrial School for Boys at Sherman.

Lyle F. Tomlinson, West Frankfort, to the State Police Merit Board for a six-year term.

George J. Stampar, Chicago, as superintendent of the Division of Supervision of Parolees, Department of Public Safety.

A committee to study and prepare legislation giving communities tools for industrial financing. Members named, who will serve without salary, are Dr. R.

Bonniwell, Chicago, chairman; Joseph Phillips, professor, Bureau of Business and Economic Research, University of Illinois; Edward Conger, and Jordan Jay Hillman, Chicago attorneys. Assisting the committee will be Victor de Grazia, superintendent, Division of Industrial Planning and Development.

Mrs. Anna Mooney, 61, Found Dead At Home

Mrs. Anna Mooney, 61, of 1537 Second street, Madison, was found dead in her home at 2 p. m. yesterday. She had lived alone since her husband, Jacob, died in March 1960.

Deputy Coroner Francis Lacey, who will conduct an inquest, said a nephew, Harold Valentine, summoned him after the nephew had gone to the home at the request of neighbors, who noticed an accumulation of mail and newspapers.

Lacey said neighbors told him that Mrs. Mooney had complained of feeling ill when last seen on March 28. He said she apparently died in her sleep of natural causes, and had been dead for several days.

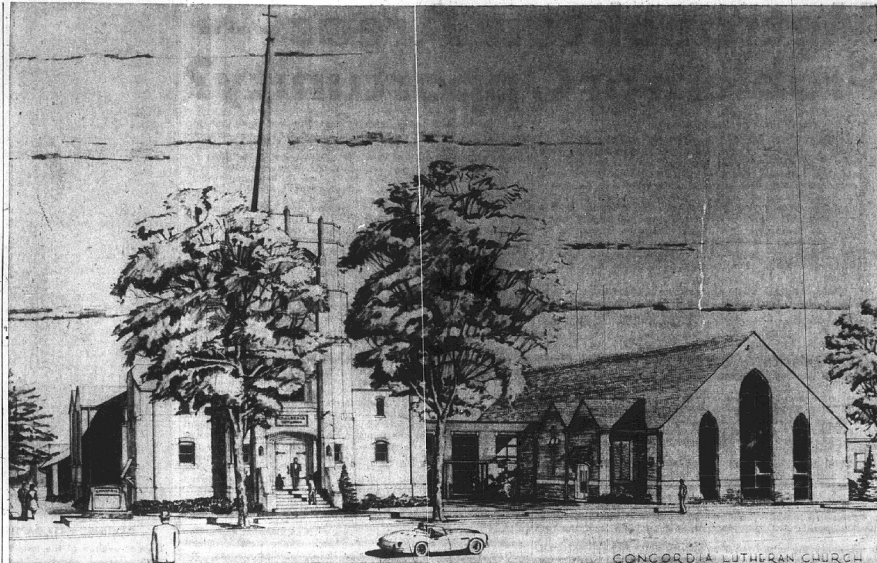

Born in Whichita Falls, Tex., she had been a Madison resident for 36 years and was a member of the Auxiliary of Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307.

With the exception of several nieces and nephews, she leaves no survivors.

Services were held at 11 a. m. today at a Madison funeral home, with burial at St. John's Cemetery.

Car Hits Two Road Signs

Madison police charged Donald L. Myracle, 22, of 3084 Wayne avenue with careless driving at 8:20 a. m. today after his southbound auto had failed to make the turn from Edwardsville road onto McCambridge avenue. The front of the car knocked down and damaged two state signs, one giving the speed limit and the other designating Route 67a. He posted his driver's license as bond.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING of the new educational unit at Concordia Lutheran Church. The new building and renovation of the church basement will provide 27 classrooms. The estimated cost is $215,000. Plans call for a two-floor brick educational wing structure, right, and a 50x100-foot court and connected by a hallway at the rear of the property.

The church offices for the pastor, secretary, vicar and the Sunday school will be at the head of the ground floor corridor of the new 29x55 foot parish area for the Walther League hall. The floor will also include nine classrooms for the eight to 11-year-old children, a nursery, a combination board and religious instruction room and lavatory. The upper floor will provide three classrooms or a fellowship area for the Walther League. The hall will include a stage, new kitchen, library - classroom and five single classrooms for 12 and 13 year olds. The hall will seat 256 persons.

Renovation of the church basement will provide eight new classrooms for children eight years and under as well as an assembly room for the group. A new heating plant for all facilities will be located in the basement.

Metropolitan areas - Problem for Community?

From Center For Information On America

EDITORIAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE: Dr. L. V. Berke, president of Associated Universities and chairman of the Space Science Board of the National Academy of Sciences; Dr. James W. Foster, professor of Government, Yale University; Dr. Kent Roberts Greenfield, chief historian (ret.), Department of the Army; Dr. Allan Nevins, professor emeritus of American History, Columbia University, president of the Society of American Historians; Dr. Robert Spiller, chairman of the Department of American Civilization, University of Pennsylvania, former president of the American Studies Association; Editor, Townsend Scudder, president of the center.

The founding fathers would no longer recognize the face of the Republic.

It's not just that we've grown. What has changed—and it is a change which has come about only very recently—is the pattern of our physical landscape and of our ways of living in it.

There have been comparable changes before, but this in many ways is the most drastic. An earlier alteration was when we shifted from a rural to an urban society and nation. This took place mostly in the ten years between 1880 and 1900.

The present change belongs to the decade of the 1950's. It has irrevocably committed us to a metropolitan America. It is characterized by the disappearance of the division that used to set apart the city from the country.

Before this second change, there used to be a sharp break between the boundaries of the city, with its block after block of houses and grid pattern of streets; and the surrounding countryside with its fields and woods and farms and meandering roads.

But now, in place of the compact, ordered, intensive use of space within clear boundaries which we used to think of as a city, there is a vastly larger, more diffuse and disorderly, sprawling countryside. For what a better name, we call this a metropolitan area. It has become typical of our growth all over America.

The broad outlines of these new areas have become familiar. They're big. For over a generation they have acted like magnets pulling people off the farms and out of the small, independent towns. In the past ten years, area population has grown 25% while population growth outside was only 8%.

With this expansion in area population has come a decrease in living densities compared to the cities of the past. Between 1950 and 1960, the population grew by 21 million while that of the central cities went up only 4 million.

As this migration goes on, the physical landmarks of the new areas are the lavish use of space. The single family house, the easy-going school, the industrial plant that spreads out like a country club dominate our landscape.

The way things look, the United States in the next ten years can expect most of its growth—at least over 80%—to take place, either on the farm or in the central city but in the fringes of our metropolitan areas.

So rapid and so ubiquitous has been this commitment of people, industry, commercial establishments, and community facilities to these "complex" metropolitan areas that we find it somewhat hard to grasp what is going on. Perhaps only a few fear that, because of this change, American life could be turning sour. Instead, the new complexes have become a further sign of the upsurge in the American economy and of our material abundance.

Still, a sense of loss of direction, an uneasiness that metropolitan growth is getting out of hand, an anticipation of trouble ahead does seem to be part of the spirit of the times.

A major worry is political. Can our long established grass roots system of local government still suffice? What bothers us is the question of just how adequate for the job are the public agencies caught up in the task of providing the utilities, the transportation facilities, the schools, and so forth, for our new urban and suburban populations. Specifically, the indictment runs that conventional long established public measures to guide land-use don't rise to the new situation. Public action—continues the indictment—helps perhaps most important, the development in the central core of the area and maintain the rate of economic expansion in the suburbs is limited and unregulated. Public direction of transportation is perhaps most important, the development in the central core of the area and maintain the rate of economic expansion in the suburbs is limited and unregulated.

In the face of these changes, the kind of government and procedure for the renewal and development of a metropolitan area is a topic that stands high on the list of domestic vital issues.

These broad types of proposals have evolved from the study, analysis, and disputes of the post-war years. Each is different in its underlying assumptions and recommendations.

(1) Formal Metropolitan Government. A number of distinguished experts and businessmen have come out in favor of a major consolidation of existing units of local government into a metropolitan structure. Historically, this idea for corralling these wild new metropolitan areas has had the greatest theoretical appeal and the least practical.

The reasons for this theoretical appeal are clear enough. The spectacle of separate, independent local governments within a metropolitan area making their own plans, raising their own taxes, and recruiting their own personnel, duplication of effort in public services such as fire fighting and prevention, police protection, and in the construction of public facilities. Yet the movement of population out of core cities and elsewhere into hundreds of separate jurisdictions was making it next to impossible to plan rationally for the area as a whole.

Out of the doctrines and attitudes of the city manager movement and of studies in public administration came repeated calls for greater efficiency in the new areas. These calls emphasized a concern with fiscal waste and a desire to make orderly and neat every portion of the metropolitan area.

Suggestions varied as to just what should be done. They included the idea of a metropolitan government, or that all local governments in the area should be consolidated into a single structure. Some advocated that an urban county should be established. Others proposed a federation of municipalities.

Pittsburgh was not alone. Boston soon formed its Greater Boston Economic Study Conference. Cleveland had its Citizens League. Baltimore forged public and private interests in bold ordinances and building codes and reordering of its traffic flows. From Kalamazoo to Baton Rouge, from Portland to San Diego, there were stirrings to mobilize men of good will in every community for public action.

Obviously, there are some powerful appeals in the elite approach.

But the basic theme remained the same: to cope with the problems of growth, and produce greater efficiency and less waste of the tax dollar, a larger, more highly coordinated organization should be set up.

While the logic of these grand designs seemed impeccable, their feasibility seemed increasingly unlikely as the next few years rolled on. True, there were limited breakthroughs in this direction in Toronto and Miami. But no stampede took place among other municipalities to follow these experiments in new governmental arrangements.

Instead, voters in city after city defeated proposals in this direction put forward by researchers and business groups. In the judgment of many, the steam went out of the drive for formal metropolitan government with the 1959 defeat of comprehensive proposals in St. Louis and Cleveland.

It is not hard to suggest why such plans failed. For one thing, few suburbanites cherish reunion with the center city financially, politically, or socially. Instead, their new ranch houses, baroque pits, and motor boats represent to them the successful climax in a long search for identity with a smaller, more tranquil, and more like-minded community. Few politicians in suburban areas welcome the change that could weaken their established position. Finally—the continuing study of metropolitan areas made it apparent that the city and suburb were not the only, and perhaps not the most important, goals for the stimulation of economic development, the creation of a more heterogeneous political process, the effective management of growth were seen to be issues of broad concern.

These broad types of proposals have evolved from the study, analysis, and disputes of the post-war years. Each is different in its underlying assumptions and recommendations.

(2) Informal Arrangements to Guide Development. Proposals of this sort, rather than emphasizing direct constitutional reform, advocate the idea of civic leaders working privately together to guide development.

One of the findings of American urban sociologists in the 1950's was that a vacuum in leadership existed in the new metropolitan areas. They urged the encouragement of powerful, candid leadership to handle the new problems. They argued that there was little leadership in the new areas, and that if it came about, they felt that—alone—local government would not be able to accomplish it.

To the sociologists, the key problem was how best to interest the new areas in the new problems in the community—the small number of influential individuals who hold a near monopoly on state, respect, and influence in the area. These men and women would be the ones to make the most invisible elite who, without the trappings of formal political authority, could nevertheless make the key decisions.

This notion grew in popularity during the middle 1950's. It maintained that small groups, meeting quietly together, could best plan programs and produce results which would constructively change the character of metropolitan regions. The programs would not rewrite municipal charters or rearrange boundary lines. They would not create new governments. But they would nevertheless accelerate economic and other development.

The prototype of this movement is in Pittsburgh where a group of determined individuals cleared the city air of smog, rebuilt the Golden Triangle, and established Allegheny Conference. Its purpose was clear: to make sure that Pittsburgh remained in the running as an industrial center and cultural landmark.

Pittsburgh was not alone. Boston soon formed its Greater Boston Economic Study Conference. Cleveland had its Citizens League. Baltimore forged public and private interests in bold ordinances and building codes and reordering of its traffic flows. From Kalamazoo to Baton Rouge, from Portland to San Diego, there were stirrings to mobilize men of good will in every community for public action.

Obviously, there are some powerful appeals in the elite approach.

(3) The Doctrine of Metropolitan Laissez-faire. Those holding to this doctrine counsel that any expansion in the role of government will confuse and complicate rather than simplify the evolution of metropolitan areas. This is by no means a superficial attitude. It is based on careful investigation such as that of the New York Metropolitan Region, which in its latest report maintains that the pattern of the central city will continue, along with suburban locations, for the large modern industrial firm. Such analyses also explain how the strip of older suburban and city neighborhoods called "gray areas" came to exist, why housing blight appeared, and why once flourishing commercial districts turned into used car lots interspersed with honky-tonks and bars.

Similar studies in Pittsburgh, Little Rock, San Francisco, and Philadelphia, like New York's investigation, also traced the path of the marginal industries, why once flourishing commercial districts turned into used car lots interspersed with honky-tonks and bars.

Excellent though they are, studies of this type make few recommendations for public action. Though they identify the problems, they do not offer proposals of improvement and new use. Though they calculate the increases in transportation and water costs as the region moves outward, they make no proposals for a unified, well-defined transportation system to counteract confusion, congestion, and waste. While they chronicle the practices of private land development, they do not offer suggestions as to how public institutions and ordinances might be used to provide an underlying framework in the form of regional land use controls. Having predicted that the metropolitan regions will survive, even if the result is mediocrity, they end their explorations. Indeed the assumption seems to be that public policy cannot substantially order or redirect the forces which the market place has set to work.

Toward A Pattern Of Metropolitan Cooperation. While each of these three standard approaches of recent years seems to have its serious deficiencies, they do provide clues or lessons which can be useful in developing effective plans of action. The first lesson is that neither private nor public action alone seems capable of mounting a meaningful attack on the widespread problems of metropolitan areas. It is clear, for example, that if local governments and their agencies have a hard time coming together to establish a comprehensive planning program, they also have a hard time recruiting and retaining the skilled executive and technical personnel needed. It seems equally obvious that private enterprise cannot go it alone in metropolitan affairs. As far as urban renewal and development are concerned, business needs to call on the approach. For one thing, the formation of private economic groups appears to avoid politics or at least formal political action. The electorate is merely called on to vote approval or disapproval of the plan.

For the group itself, as the program goes on, the periodic meetings, the deliberate decisions can create an atmosphere not unlike that of a comfortable club, with an appearance of good will, objectivity, service, and enlightenment gradually maintained.

But there are also limitations. Because of the unofficial nature of the group, it need only deal with what interests its members most. And how does the idea fit in with the philosophy of representative government?

Furthermore, sometimes it is difficult for such a group to see eye to eye. As metropolitan areas grow, it becomes apparent that shopping center owners in the suburbs and plant managers in the outlying fringes have a civic interest quite different from their counterparts downtown. The larger the area the more difficult it has proven to provide cohesive leadership.

Furthermore, an informal, non-elected group can avoid public problems it may not wish to tackle. Thus, decision and action on such controversial problems as land use, public housing, the development of a traffic system including all forms of transportation, the expansion of recreational services and park lands, or the preservation of open spaces, may be ducked.

TO MY FRIENDS AND VOTERS OF GRANITE CITY:

You have given me the privilege of serving as Superintendent of Streets in Granite City. I have done this to the best of my ability and I want to continue to do this.

I sincerely believe my job can best be done by Granite City electing a new Mayor. I want a Mayor who has an interest in the city streets, the sewage and drainage needs of Granite City. I want a man who will ride the streets with me occasionally and know the needs first hand.

I have known the candidate I am supporting for 25 years. I know him to be a man of the highest character. I would never support him if he was not that type of man. I deplore the gutter tactics of the lowest type of politics that starts, circulates and promotes false and malicious rumors. This candidate does not have commitments to or support from Madison or any other pressure group. You can cast your vote with confidence for this man.

I believe the man to elect is PAT RICH. I encourage and urge my friends and supporters to back and support the man who CAN WIN and will give us the administration we need for good government.

Voting Tomorrow Will Climax One Of Most Aggressive Of Recent Campaigns

By tomorrow evening, 36 Quad-Cityans will have been elected to public office for terms ranging from two to six years and 48 others will have been defeated. Between now and then, voters will reach final decisions on the candidates and issues and then visit the polls, many of them going to three locations to cast ballots on city-township, justice district and park district offices. Maps and other precinct information are published as a public service by this newspaper in today's issue, and returns again will be compiled Tuesday night.

The Press-Record urges a large turnout, for this is the best assurance that the people's wishes will be followed in the conduct of government. We recommend participation by eligible voters of each township in tomorrow's annual town meetings, the only remaining example of direct self-government. And we heartily recommend a "Yes" vote on water fluoridation in Granite City; the careful study and subsequent unanimous endorsement by the Tri-City Dental Society and Tri-City Medical Society, as well as the approval of countless other state and national professional groups and public health agencies, should outweigh unproven charges made to create doubt among voters.

On the question of candidates, very aggressive campaigns have been waged, with officials-elect and challengers alike going to the people with fuller information and greater intensity than has been the case in recent years. Newspaper articles on governmental actions, addresses by candidates and reports of such meetings, campaign platforms and other literature, letters from the public and stands taken by individuals and organizations all have served to give citizens a substantial amount of background information on which to base their votes.

The Press-Record feels an obligation to help provide such information and interpretive comment, which has been done. Because of this great detail already developed by the current campaign on both performances and proposals, the public should be amply informed and entirely capable of deciding who are the best men for public office among those on the ballot, without further comment or opinion by this newspaper.

Report Will Provide Basis For Drainage, Pollution Planning

Submission of a report next month on methods available for improving Granite City drainage and pollution abatement should clarify both important subjects. Neither need can be ignored, but it is well that enough time has been taken to enable proceeding on a sound basis, with all pertinent data assembled and evaluated.

It is also just as well that the proposed levee district pollution referendum could not be included on the ballots this spring, since this would have forced voters to make a decision without adequate information on which course to follow and on how much cost would accrue in the form of taxes and service charges.

Hopeful signs include the State Sanitary Water Board's approval of progress made so far by the Citizens' Master Sewer and Drainage Committee, and the possibility of a large federal grant to augment city and levee district funds.

The report scheduled for May 23 should be well worth waiting for, and could point the way to a new era of significant progress.

Military Spending Would Enrich World If Directed To Peaceful Purposes

We do not join the ranks of those urging disarmament without regard to rules or consequences. Yet it is adding to note that the world is spending $14 million every hour on arms and armies—adding because so much could be done with this vast amount of money if military competition could be ended.

An immediate result would be that 75,000,000 men could turn to peaceful tasks, a fifth of them leaving untrained service and the remainder no longer needed to keep them armed, fed and supplied. Scientists could change their quest from bigger and better methods of mass destruction to other secrets of the earth, universe and life itself.

A mathematical and theoretical appraisal also indicates that the world could double the average annual cash income of the 1,200,000,000 people who make less than $100 a year, adequate housing could be provided for 240,000,000 families in underdeveloped nations, the hungry among the earth's three billion inhabitants could be fed and the sick could obtain medical care.

Military readiness must be maintained unless there is an iron-clad worldwide inspection procedure that could warn of disarmament violations in time. But the cost of such a system is staggering, in the light of what could be accomplished if such expenditures were pooled for peaceful purposes.

Then, there are the people who tell you, when you ask them, how they feel.

Suicide Toll Higher Than Plane Crashes, Murders

The crash of an airplane is spectacular and tragic in terms of the heavy loss of life. Homicide cases are given wide attention. Yet, suicides take twice the toll of murders and 12 times the number of plane fatalities.

The topic is timely, because spring is the most common season for suicide and April is the month of greatest frequency.

With 16,000 persons dying by their own hand in the United States each year, the nation ranks far ahead of such lands as Canada, Ireland, Greece and many Latin-American countries, although its rate is below that of Austria, Hungary, West Germany and Japan. Suicide ranks eleventh among the causes of death in the U. S., and eighth among white males, who account for three-fourths of all self-inflicted deaths in this country.

The fact that December and the holiday season show the lowest rate may be the key to reducing the number of suicides, since that is the time of warmer, happier associations with family, friends and mankind in general.

Taking one's life is not only morally wrong but represents a failure by the individual and society itself. From studies of suicide, it appears that too many people are overwhelmed by the pressures of life, and are not sufficiently aware and interested in the people and world around them. Now, in the spring of the year, there are many avenues of useful and rewarding service open to all.

A good meal often changes an individual's entire viewpoint on life and its problems.

Life is a problem of balance; usually, the bank balance.

Brokes Lock, Causing Car To Skid Into Guard Posts

Brakes locked on an auto driven by William P. Whitehead, 52, of 2127 Ohio avenue, causing the car to skid across a slippery, rain drenched intersection one mile east of Granite City at 9:45 a.m. Friday, state troopers said. They said that Whitehead told them the brakes at first failed, and then suddenly locked. The car crashed into guard posts. The mishap took place at State Routes 111 and 162. Two passengers, Gary K. Whitehead, 16, son of the driver, and another boy, Larry Lillis, 16, and the driver were not injured.

C. of C. Groups Plan Area Manpower Survey

Initial steps which may result in the largest area manpower skills survey ever undertaken in this country have been made by the Chambers of Commerce in the Greater St. Louis area, the Illinois and Missouri employment services and the East Side Manufacturers Association.

Meeting with the Metropolitan St. Louis Chamber of Commerce last week, representatives of the organizations, which included Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce Executive Secretary Harlan Dobry, reached initial agreement on the conducting of such a survey, which would require an estimated one and one-half years to complete.

Its purpose would be to gain comparative information which would assist in further industrial development of the area and provide a yardstick for future community planning.

Much of the information would be gathered separately by the participating agencies. It would be compiled in the end to provide a comprehensive evaluation of the various types and volume of manpower available and a forecast of future needs.

Aloys P. Kaufmann, president of the Metropolitan St. Louis C. of C., said that concerned organizational representatives will meet again in the near future to finalize plans and will work out arrangements on the types of detailed information to be sought.

Madison Repaving Wettest March On Record Measured By Locks Gauge

Preparing for widening and resurfacing of Madison avenue in Madison, the city has agreed to three stipulations and has forwarded appropriate documents to the Illinois division of highways, city officials said Friday.

One requires parking parallel to the curb and within six inches of the edge of the roadway, and authorizes the police chief to ban parking there and on adjacent streets when he believes it may impede traffic flow or when the state determines its necessity by traffic capacity studies. Fines of $5 to $50 are levied for violations.

Another agreement prohibits the deposit or discharge of sanitary sewage and industrial waste water into stormwater sewers constructed as part of the Madison avenue improvement. Fines are $5 to $200.

Sixth, Tenth Streets

The third provides for installation, regulation and operation of school crossing signals and pedestrian crossing signals at Madison avenue intersections—Sixth street and Tenth street. Each will have electric flasher signals synchronized with actuator buttons, turning first to yellow and then red to halt traffic while pedestrians cross Madison avenue.

They will be automatically timed to permit operation only during regularly scheduled school crossing periods, determined by the police chief and Madison school superintendent. They are not to be operated during special events occurring outside of normal school hours, and are to be switched off at the end of all vacation and holiday periods.

The mayor is authorized to enter into an agreement with the school board to supplement the signal operation with a school crossing safety patrol composed either of children or adults, or with police supervisors. Violators of the regulations are subject to a fine of $5 to $50 for each offense.

Bids are to be opened April 21 on improving Madison avenue for its entire distance in Madison. Three-fourths of the cost is to be met by the state.

J. O. Smith Sr., City Employee, Dies At 63

James O. Smith sr., 63, of 3008 Marshall avenue, died at 1:30 a.m. Saturday at St. Elizabeth Hospital of a heart ailment. He had been ill and a patient at the hospital for two weeks.

Born in Ballard county, Ky., he was an employee of the Granite City sanitation department, and worked as a truck driver for 17 years. He was a Granite City resident 36 years.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church, Modern Woodmen of America, Granite City Auxiliary Police and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Chauffeurs.

Surviving are his wife, Thelma, 64, of 3115 S. Main street, Granite City; two daughters, Mrs. Berlin (Thelma I.) Singleton and Mrs. Otto (Glenda) C. two brothers, Robert, Granite City, and C. D. Smith, Edwards, Mo.; three sisters, Mrs. Sam (Lillie) Ayers, Maryville, Mo.; Mrs. (Donny) Gregory, Paducah, Ky.; his mother, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Madison, and five grandchildren. Services were held at 2 p.m. today at a Granite City funeral home, with burial at St. John's Cemetery. Arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Wettest March On Record Measured By Locks Gauge

Precipitation last month totaled 4.93 inches, making it the wettest March ever recorded by the gauge maintained by the U. S. Corps of Engineers at the Chain of Rocks canal locks, since it was put in operation in 1894. Next closest month was March 1958 when 4.25 inches of precipitation was recorded.

The month's total also raised the three-month rainfall figure to 8.57, about two inches above normal. Normal precipitation is 6.84.

Rainfall on two days accounted for the normal amount for March—2.33 inches. The heaviest amount was recorded on March 5, when 1.20 inches fell. On March 13, 1.12 inch was measured, and some hail fell.

On that day, lightning touched off a bungler alarm and tornado warnings were issued.

Rain was measured at 85-inch on March 6 and 60-inch on March 8. Hail fell on 12 days in the month and traces were noted on five other days.

Rainfall on March 4 was 10 inches; fifth, 1.20; sixth, .85; eighth, .60; 13th, 1.12; 18th, .15; 19th, .20; 21st, .46; 23rd, .02; 27th, .14; 31st, .02. Traces were recorded on March 2, 9, 22, 24, and 30. The gauge is read at 8 a.m. each day.

In March 1960, 2.73 inches was recorded; March 1959, 2.45; March 1958, 4.25; March 1957, 3.40; March 1956, .95; March 1955, 2.03, and March 1954, .94.

Bids Sought On Renovation Of Dunbar Annex

Sealed bids are being sought by the Madison school district on extensive interior renovations to the annex portion of the Dunbar grade school in West Madison. Bid deadline will be 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 18.

Plans have been prepared by Architect Virgil H. Dulgeroff and are available at his office, 2021 Edison avenue. It was reported Friday by Board Secretary Henry M. Baucum. Combined bids will take in general, plumbing, heating and electrical work. The annex includes a vocational room, two home economics rooms, a special classroom, a musical shop, kitchen, cafeteria, two restrooms and a small auditorium.

Improvements will include all new lighting, new doors, plastering of ceilings and walls, new chalkboards, new floor tile and new lockers and partitions. The work will be intended to enhance both the safety and appearance of the building, Dulgeroff said.

NATIONAL ROAD TEST GIVES THE EVIDENCE!

Concrete outlasts asphalt 3 to 1

Sponsored by the American Association of State Highway Officials, the great National Road Test is the most significant pavement test of all time.

In this impartial test, concrete and asphalt sections were subjected to the same 2-year traffic under identical conditions of weather, soil and vehicle loads.

In standing up to traffic, concrete's margin of superiority grew steadily greater as the test progressed. At the end of test traffic, a count of surviving sections showed 74.6% of the concrete still performing. Just 23.6% of the asphalt sections remained. Rideability measurements, too, showed concrete ahead by a wide margin. This is vital evidence to support the choice of concrete pavements for roads and streets.

Your state helped finance this test to bring you better highways... maximum value for every dollar spent.

On Landrum-Griffin Act

Study Course For Union Members Offered By IU

"Understanding the Landrum-Griffin Act" an eight-week study course for union members in the Illinois Metropolitan area, will begin Thursday, April 20, in East St. Louis.

Classes will be held on eight consecutive Thursdays, from 7 to 9 p.m. in room 120 of the East St. Louis senior high school, 4801 State Street.

Prof. A. J. Wynn, U. of I. professor of labor and industrial relations, will be the course instructor. The series will be conducted by the University's Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations and the Division of University Extension.

Subjects to be discussed during the series are the background and purposes of the Landrum-Griffin Act, the "bill of rights" provisions, registration requirements, election provisions, trusteeship regulations, amendments to the Pat-Hartley Law and effects of the act upon local union administration.

Local arrangements for the series were made by Herbert S. Wilhelm, secretary of the Granite City PRESS-RECORD.

AFTER 12 YEARS, WE BELIEVE IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

- We believe that the salary set by City Aldermen—more than the City Judge and as much as the Mayor—justifies electing a real QUALIFIED man for Police Magistrate.
- We believe that it is significant that none of the present 16 justices of the Peace have applied for this position — Ask them why.
- The Illinois Bar Association recommends that both Police Magistrate and Justice of the Peace be held by Attorneys whenever possible. THERE MUST BE A REASON.
- TAXPAYERS: Get your money's worth, elect the only qualified candidate for Police Magistrate.
- Mr. Jungels will not spend a year's salary to hire a machine or try to buy the office, he will depend upon the good judgment of the VOTERS.

ATTORNEY CHARLES H. JUNGELS, is a man of HONESTY, INTEGRITY, and SOUND JUDGMENT. He is a man thoroughly qualified to be a Magistrate, with 21 years formal education and 13 years business experience. Mr. Jungels knows the law and has a keen interest in people and youngsters and understands their problems. Depot Soldiers Restoring Civil War Cannon

When an ancient Civil War artillery cannon barrels out a salute to Armed Forces Day next month at the Granite City Engineer Depot, it will mark the culmination of several months of menial, perplexing, but always interesting work by the men of the 185th Engineer Co., 53rd Engineer Group, stationed at the depot, who were aided by members of Sarah Jane McEvers Tent 90, Daughters of Union Veterans.

Some time ago, while casting about for an appropriate means of observing the Civil War centennial, the 53rd fell upon the idea of actually restoring a Civil War cannon to its original operative state.

The barrel of just such a piece was located at Jefferson Barracks in St. Louis, where it had lain, partially buried and rusting, for the better part of a century.

Filled With Concrete Brought back to the depot and turned over to the 185th Engineer Co. for the renovation, the 920-pound iron cylinder was found to be partially filled with concrete which had been poured in through the muzzle by persons unknown to assist in securing the cannon's further firing.

Working through the 3 1/2-inch muzzle opening, men of the 185th solved one problem which stood in the way of the post's hopes to actually fire the gun again by removing every last trace of the concrete and restoring the weapon's original smooth bore.

But they then ran smack into another problem. The gun's original carriage, trails and wheels, made of oak and bound with iron had long since rusted and rotted away—if they had been original equipment at the time Jefferson Barracks was a Union defensive stronghold on the Mississippi River.

It is more likely that the cannon was mounted in a fixed position—minus wheels and carriage—at Jefferson Barracks. But because it bears close resemblance to a variety of Civil War artillery pieces which were mounted on wheels, officers and men of the 53rd felt they would not be distorting history by making the cannon mobile.

DUV Tent 90 Solves Problem But loading wheels, carriage and carriage for the piece looked to be one knotty problem which would defy solving, until members of Sarah Jane McEvers Tent 90, Daughters of Union Veterans, came forward with the solution.

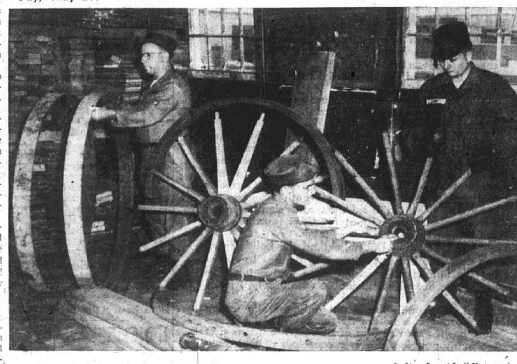

The women's organization naturally proved to be interested in the restoration project, when first informed of it through a member, Miss Sylvia Turner, who is employed at the depot. Members went to a local search for the missing items, and on a farm atop the bluffs near Lakeville came upon an antiquated wagon whose owner was persuaded to sell wheels and axletrees.

"They must be close to 100 years old," commented Sgt. Melvin Shipman of the 185th upon examination of the DUV's contributions, "and were sure well-preserved."

Shipman, whose father was a wagon maker, put his crew on the job in the woodworking shop at the depot, and it was found that most of the original wheel spokes and oak wheels plus the iron axle and 4 1/2-inch-wide gun assembly will be completed with the addition of trails and wheels made by the wood working crew.

BUSINESS END of the Civil War relic being restored by men of the 185th Engineer Co. at the engineer depot here is this 920-pound cannon barrel. M/Sgt. Kenneth Corrow (left) and Sgt. Virgil Stafford find a hand-operated winch handy as the barrel is being moved about in the welding and fabrication shop. Civil War piece, used in the defense of Jefferson Barracks, is expected to be restored in time for actual firing on Armed Forces Day, May 20.

WHEELS AND AXLETREES for the cannon are undergoing extensive renovation under the direction of Sgt. Melvin Shipman (left) of the 185th Engineer Co., who holds one of the four-inch-wide iron rims which will bind the wheels. Corporal Albert Leggett (center) and 1st Lt. William Lund, also of the 185th, display one of the set of hubs and wheel spokes which were provided by Tent 90, Daughters of Union Veterans.

Li. Col. Calvin C. "Doc" Campbell, commanding officer of the 53rd who has taken a personal interest in the project, said the completed piece will become a permanent part of the depot installation, where it will gun as the 53rd's salute gun.

Test Firing Planned The finished product, painted black and complete down to the brass fitting, will get a pre-emptory firing prior to May 20. The 185th expects no trouble, however; the 5 1/2-foot-long barrel, cast and forged in one piece.

Navy CWO Stanfill To Leave On Exercise Navy Chief Warrant Officer Wesley B. Stanfill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Stanfill of 2296 E. Madison, will leave aboard the dock landing ship USS Cabilda operating out of Long Beach, Calif., will take part in a large U. S. Pacific Fleet exercise during the spring of 1961.

Nicknamed "Green Light," the exercise will be conducted by the U. S. First Fleet, commanded by Vice Admiral C. L. Melson.

$381,277 Bond Purchases A total of $381,277 in series E and H United States savings bonds were purchased by Madison county residents in February, according to Henry D. Karandoff of Granite City, general chairman of the County Savings Bonds Committee.

POINTING TO LOCATION near Edwardsville where they were successful in locating wheels and axletree on which the cannon will be mounted are DUV Tent 90 members Miss Sylvia Turner (left) and Mrs. Pearl Ward, who together with Mrs. Opal Lozier formed a committee which traveled back roads in the area for a day, searching for wheels of the right size.

Completes Marine Training Marine Pvt. Marion W. Corbett, son of Mrs. Mable Corbett, 2807 Kirkpatrick Homes, completed a four-week individual combat training course, March 24, with the Second Infantry Training Regiment at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

MRS. GRAVES HOSTESS TO NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB

Mrs. Erma Graves entertained the Thursday Afternoon Neighborhood club in her home, 1624 Second street, Thursday. The birthday of Mrs. Ann Ridenour was observed during the afternoon, at which time a gift was presented to her from the club members.

Those taking part in the gathering were Mrs. Virginia Eich, Mrs. Gladys Zentgraf, Mrs. Margaret Lee, Mrs. Jackie Frizzell and Mrs. Ridenour. The hostess served refreshments at the conclusion of the game period.

Mrs. Frizzell will be hostess to the members in her home, 1635 Second street, April 13.

LUNCHEON FOR CLUB AT STAGNER HOME

Mrs. Elvera Stagner was hostess to the Jokers Canasta club in her home, 1929 Eckelwood avenue, Wednesday evening. The winners for the evening were Mrs. Lucille Boyles, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Mary Adams and Mrs. June Barham.

Others playing were Mrs. Mary Allen, Mrs. Elvera Stagner, Mrs. Kathryn Hakkarainen and Mrs. Ellen Mott. The hostess served a luncheon prior to the awarding of prizes.

Secret pal gifts were exchanged for St. Patrick's Day and April Fool's Day. Mrs. Hakkarainen will be hostess to the group in her home April 12.

An Easter project was completed by Brownies of Troop 166 as they gathered at the home of their leader, Mrs. Marlene Serin, 1711 Marker street, Thursday afternoon. The girls took gifts they had made home to give to their parents.

The Brownie song was sung by the group, which had games for the remainder of the meeting time. A discussion was held on what the girls will make for their mothers as a gift on Mother's Day.

Plans were made for the troop to have a roller skating party at Granite City in the near future. Those responding to the call call were Chris Diane Rowellman, Blackburner, Corwyn Wright, Donna Baker, Paula Stephens, Cheryl Martini, Connie Stauding, Joanne Voloski, Sharon Barham, Susan Baker and Jacqueline Wright.

The Ladies Quilting Society met at the First Methodist Church Thursday for a day of quilting. During the month hour, the birthday of Mrs. Edna Austin was observed.

A decorated cake adorned the table. The centerpiece consisted of a nest filled with assorted candles and a chocolate rabbit in keeping with the Easter season.

Mrs. Belle Woodring, Mrs. Minnie Martin, Mrs. Cornelia Himmert, Mrs. Wilma Sackel, Mrs. Helen Cook, Mrs. Nova Sanders, and Mrs. Bonnie Roberts were sent along with the homages and her grandson, Dennis Jones.

For when the old cannon belches flame and black powder smoke here on May 20 as part of the Armed Forces Day celebration, 100 years, one month and eight days will have passed since that April morning in 1861 when the bombardment of Fort Sumter, S.C., signaled the beginning of the War Between the States.

Two Speeding Tickets Arrest tickets, charging them with speeding, were issued to two motorists at 23rd street and Madison avenue Thursday night by Granite City police. Posting their driver's licenses as bonds were Joseph C. Butkovich, 16, of Wood River, and Walter P. Long Beach, 36, of 2122 Waterman avenue.

CUB PACK 41 AWARDS

A monthly meeting of Cub Pack 41 was held Thursday evening in the Mitchell school gymnasium.

Larry Franko was appointed as an assistant denier. Following the awards ceremony, Den Four presented a skit depicting the trials and tribulations of a railroad ticket agent.

A pinewood derby was held during which cars made by the cub scouts and their parents competed. Racing around two laps of the course, Richard Metz captured first place. Terry Kent came in second and David Klein finished a close third. The three received appropriate cups. After the closing ceremony, refreshments were served by Den Four.

Miller Outstanding Member Of Army Training Co.

Pvt. Charles A. Miller, son of Mrs. Sylvia Williams of 2554 Missouri avenue, will be honored as the outstanding member for training excellence at graduation ceremonies of Co. B, 18th Battalion, Fifth Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S. C., Friday morning.

Miller, 23, attended Granite City high school and entered the army last Jan. 28. He will return to Granite City for a 10-day leave following completion of basic training at Fort Jackson.

Collide While Passing

Westbound cars driven by Anson C. Green, 42, St. Louis, and Walter Stark, 60, East Dundee, Ill., collided on the eastern approach to the McKinley Bridge at 10:40 p. m. Thursday, damaging the left front of Stark's vehicle and the right front of the car of Green, who was passing. Venice police were informed.

CANDIDATE SAYS SIXTH WARD IS 'FORGOTTEN'

Mr. C. E. Townsend, Endorser of the Granite City Press-Record

Dear Mr. Townsend:

There is a "forgotten" little village within the city limits of Granite City in Ward 6. I have spent the past four days, introducing myself to the residents in the area from Dale Ave. to Maryville rd. and from Westchester dr. to Frontenac lane & Johnson rd. area to Terminal ave. Taxpayers in this section have many problems, such as drainage, improper observation of city sanitation ordinances, streets with suspected inferior concrete surfacing, which has resulted in cave-ins and unsightly holes—this damage in recently constructed streets. Some have no sidewalks, which may be the fault of the sub-dividers in the area from Dale to Maryville and St. Clair to Terminal; they are damaged, mostly from the nearest fire station.

Candidates, seeking public office seem to find their way to this vicinity with ease, to ask

In my opinion, it is time to consider and adopt a resolution creating another Ward, this would increase in taxes. Surely we can afford the $150.00 monthly salary for two aldermen there, giving fair representation to both the new and the old sections of the Ward. We would use some of the parking meter fund, or what's wrong with tapping the till of our city sales tax for this much needed expenditure.

If the politicians want to consider and adopt a resolution promising the moon to the people, I can assure them, that whether I serve as a member of the Council, or as a private citizen, I am a self-appointed champion of the people, just as I have been for the past two years. I sincerely hope that in the 6th Ward the Mayor, members of the City Council and Mr. C. E. Townsend as our next and best friends to correct our oversized problem.

Sincerely yours,

for votes and support. The property is assessed and taxes collected, but no one to date has recognized the problem to mention them publicly, at least to my knowledge. Certainly, we lack adequate representation in the City Council for these people. This other section of our Ward are becoming concerned about proper representation because of our growth. Our 6th Ward has approximately 10,000 residents, yet we have only two men serving on the Council. In some Wards, population is little more than 2000, but you will note there are two aldermen representing these small areas.

In all fairness to Mr. Skubish and Mr. Shuckelford, they can not serve their people in a proper manner, when the population is so great, and the area is so far-reaching. However, each and every public official of this City will be aware of the bounding growth of the 6th Ward. Recently, we were given three aldermen in addition to our real five. We now enjoy the distinction of having a total of eight precincts. No other Ward is comparable in area, population, or total precincts. This might very well explain why when resolutions are passed for expenditures, the 6th Ward always gets less; in an overall picture of a fair share in the benefits and services of tax monies.

In my opinion, it is time to consider and adopt a resolution creating another Ward, this would increase in taxes. Surely we can afford the $150.00 monthly salary for two aldermen there, giving fair representation to both the new and the old sections of the Ward. CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS GIVE VIEWS

ON FLUORIDATION

Dear Mr. Townsend:

We would like to express the viewpoint of Christian Scientists on the subject of fluoridation of the public water supply.

Christian Scientists do not oppose any voluntary system of medicine or surgery or health regimen. They do not desire to impose their way of thought or healing upon anybody; but they do believe in voluntary acceptance or rejection of political, religious, or medical beliefs. It should be stated also that Christian Scientists enter no objection against measures of sanitation and public cleanliness. Christian Scientists simply ask that they be permitted to enjoy the same freedom which, as American citizens supporting the American way of life, they are trying to sustain for others.

Healing the sick through prayer as Jesus did and directed followers to is a fundamental practice of this Christianly scientific religion. Although their method of treating the sick and prevention of disease by prayer alone does not coincide with the majority view of today, it is an integral part of the religion and, therefore, a constitutional right.

Teachers Endorse Two School Board Candidates

Departing from its past procedure of remaining officially neutral, the Granite City Teachers' Federation last week endorsed Ralph Fricker and George J. Stidham for election to the Granite City school board April 8. It was learned over the weekend from Robert C. Nelson, Caseyville, Ill., newly-elected president of the local.

Nelson said the voice was taken place after a comparison of talks and of answers to the federation's questions by five of the six candidates at a federation

Charges Steel Co. Restricts Bargaining Rights

Representatives of Operating Engineers Local 148, whose members are employed at the Union Electric Co. power generating installation adjacent to the Granite City Steel Co. blast furnace department, have filed charges with the National Labor Relations Board in St. Louis that the steel company is restricting the rights of the UE installation workers to choose their own bargaining agent.

Named as aiding and abetting the restriction was Local 50, International Chemical Workers Union, whose members are employed in the blast furnace department at Granite City Steel Co.

Charles Oliver, assistant business representative for Local 148, said that members of the local have a contract with UE which runs until June 30, 1962, and that Local 148 had hoped to continue under its present agreement when GC Steel takes over operations at the UE plant on May 1.

Oliver also said that representatives of the steel company have stated that GC Steel will not recognize Local 148 as bargaining agent under any new agreement, and have given 30 days from May 1 for local 148 members to join Local 50.

Says Local 50 is GCS Agent Local 50 Business Agent Charles Hamilton told the Press-Record this morning that Local 50 is recognized as the duly authorized bargaining agent for all hourly employees of the Blast Furnace Plant of GC Steel Co. in a contract which expires Aug. 1 of this year.

Oliver said that Union Electric holds that a contract involving its workers here will not be valid when GC Steel Co. assumes responsibility at the plant on May 1 since the steel company is not classified as a public utility.

He added that Local 148 members would be giving up quite a lot in fringe benefits by joining in any agreement similar to that of Local 50, and that "offer from Granite City Steel Co. are not up to what Local 148 now has in its contract with Union Electric."

A spokesman for Granite City Steel Co. said this morning that the matter is in the hands of the firm's legal department. "The Region 14 NLRB office in St. Louis has assigned field investigator John S. Stevens to make preliminary inquiries into the complaint."

American families spent 54 percent of their income after taxes for health care services and products in 1959, reports the Health Insurance Institute.

The population of Ethiopia is 22 million.

SIDELIGHTS from SPRINGFIELD

By Rep. PAUL SIMON

Many Illinois residents will have a different Congressman after the 1962 elections — not because of the defeat of men in office, but because the state legislature will have one less member in the 1963 Congress than our state has today, because the Illinois population has not grown as rapidly as other states.

Most people have no idea of the tremendous population shift which takes place within our country, and within our state. Within Illinois, for example, 51 of our 102 counties lost population between 1950 and 1960.

What is even more interesting, a study of Prof. John Kinneman of Illinois State Normal University shows that 26 Illinois counties have a smaller population today than they did in 1870 — five years after the close of the civil war.

Pope county has only 26% of the population it had in 1870; Schuyler County has 50%; Brown and Scott Counties have 61%; and 22 other Illinois counties can be added to this list.

What makes this important is that there is a real struggle going on as to which way the state will change congressional districts, and the shifting population means some major changes must be made.

If this session of the legislature should not agree on districts, all 24 Illinois Congressmen would have to run at large.

Chihuahua Dog Missing Since Saturday Dossing

A female chihuahua dog, reported missing late Saturday after biting an eight-month-old boy, is being sought by its owner, Francis Kelly, 1533 Grand avenue.

The pet disappeared from the home of Kelly's mother-in-law Mrs. Rivella Howard, 1935 Grand avenue, at 10 p.m. The dog is 14 NLRB office in St. Louis has assigned field investigator John S. Stevens to make preliminary inquiries into the complaint.

The first chapel built on Navy property was dedicated at Annapolis, Md., on Feb. 5, 1854.

ONLY NELSON (NELLIE) HAGNAUER and Mr. Roy Downing loom as possibilities. Mr. Downing is asking to be elected to the Supervisor's position and yet he was not even a registered voter until March, 1961. WE DOUBT THE SINCERITY OF MR. DOWNING'S concern for our local problems when HE has NEVER EVEN VOTED in the presidential election and did not register to vote until after he began to seek office.

WHAT OF Nelson Hagnauer

He is 33 years of age, married, with two children, and living at 2708 Saratoga. He is a Navy veteran and is employed by the Phillips Petroleum Company. He is well versed in the problems of the Supervisor's office, having served on the Board of Supervisors for six years, serving on the Rules Committee, the County Nursing Home Committee and the Bi-County Airport Committee. Since his presence on the County Nursing Home Committee, the Home has improved for the first time in its history so that it meets with the standards of the State of Illinois and qualifies as a Nursing Home rather than County Poor Farm.

HE HAS PLEDGED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Full time attendance to duties.
2. Cooperate with local private relief agencies.
3. Qualify the office for state aid.
4. Use qualified, competent assistants.

NELSON HAGNAUER IS being SUPPORTED by several politically conscious organizations, such as the MADISON COUNTY YOUNG DEMOCRATIC CLUB AND THE GRANITE CITY DEMOCRATIC CLUB. In addition he has been endorsed by the EAST ST. LOUIS EVENING JOURNAL. He is regarded in political circles as the "ONLY CANDIDATE WITH THE APPARENT VOTE-GETTING ABILITY TO DEFEAT THE INCUMBENT."

If you know of persons who have been on relief or families who feel a change is necessary and are willing to help change the supervisor, please contact W. P. CONNOLLY, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELIEF REFORM, at TRIangle 7-4522. Volunteers are needed.

NELSON (NELLIE) HAGNAUER

SUPERVISOR'S RACE IN A NUTSHELL

The Township Supervisor is an elected official, whose primary duties are:

1. Prepare the Township Budget
The incumbent, MR. LEONARD ORAM, RAISED YOUR TAX LEVY over $158,000.00 in 1959, from $26,000.00 to $185,000.00.

2. Supervise the General Relief Office
Mr. Oram receives in excess of $6000 a year as Township Supervisor and Supervisor of Poor Relief . . . MORE THAN ENOUGH TO WARRANT FULL TIME ATTENDANCE TO DUTIES.

(a.) He has virtually turned over the main function of the relief office to a female employee whose administration of relief has been the subject of complaints to various private relief agencies such as Protestant, Catholics, Salvation Army, Catholic Charities as well as the Illinois Public Aid Commission and the State Attorney's Office.

(c.) Mr. Oram has FAILED TO QUALIFY THE GRANITE CITY RELIEF OFFICE FOR STATE AID. VENICE, ALTON, WOOD RIVER AND NAMEOKI TOWNSHIP SUPERVISORS ALL HAVE APPLIED FOR AND RECEIVED STATE AID, THEREBY LESSENING THE TAX BURDEN ON THE LOCAL TAX PAYER. The Granite City Relief office at present does not meet the minimum state standards that would entitle it to state contributions.

3. Represent Granite City Township on the County Board, which is a county legislative body.

Mr. Oram attended only two County Committee Meetings in the past year. In the past four years he has attended board meetings approximately only half the time. Our tax money is being spent by the county in the ABSENCE OF OUR PRIMARY REPRESENTATIVE on the County Board.

You can readily see that MR. ORAM SHOULD BE REPLACED, not only for the benefit of those unfortunate enough to need relief, but also for the benefit of the rest of the tax payers of our community

WHO IS TO REPLACE HIM?

ONLY NELSON (NELLIE) HAGNAUER and Mr. Roy Downing loom as possibilities. Mr. Downing is asking to be elected to the Supervisor's position and yet he was not even a registered voter until March, 1961. WE DOUBT THE SINCERITY OF MR. DOWNING'S concern for our local problems when HE has NEVER EVEN VOTED in the presidential election and did not register to vote until after he began to seek office.

PUBLIC INVITED

TO THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF GRANITE CITY, ILLINOIS:

Why do the Chief of Police of Venice, Illinois and other people from out of town campaign for Mayor Davis?

Why, does Mayor Davis have his Police Commissioner, as Head of the Levee Board in Madison County?

Why, does the other prominent candidate meet the Mayor and the Chief of Police of Madison, Illinois, on many occasions at a restaurant in Madison, Illinois?

We all know that coalition politics have always been bad for the people, so why does Mr. Rich (a Democrat?) have Mr. Haven, (a Republican?) on the same ticket? Why does Mayor Davis, (a Democrat?) have Doc Darner, (a Republican?) on his ticket?

Why, do most of the Democrat Committeemen back a coalition slate? Also, the Democratic Club, controlled by some of these young Committeemen, are backing Republicans?

It sure looks to me like an invasion from the South of Granite City.

James (Buss) Grove

Ex-Democratic City Chairman

25 YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the files of the Granite City Press-Record.

Monday, April 8, 1936

Approval was received yesterday by Mayor M. E. Kirkpatrick on a WPA project that will considerably enhance the cleanliness of the city.

The project provides for parkway and highway clearance and mosquito eradication. It will employ 110 men for a period of a year at a cost of $66,000.

Negotiations for refinancing the mortgage on the First Christian Church building, 20th street and Cleveland blvd., were completed yesterday. A $3500 loan was obtained.

Douglas Little was elected president of the Optimist Club today at the YMCA. Others elected were Ed Edzard, secretary; Arthur Rose, treasurer; and Carl Roach, president of governors. John Tate is retiring president.

Boy Scout Troop 4, of this city advanced in the first and contest for the championship of Region 7, which comprises four states, by winning in Cahokia Mound Council competition Thursday. Members of the winning team were William Russell, Virgil Eblevin, C. Woods and Earl McMillan. Harry Meyer is scoutmaster.

Complete plans and specifications for the new school building to be built in Madison are expected to be made this week, according to information received by school board president Dr. R. A. Marshall.

Representatives of softball teams in this city met Friday night and adopted the regular valuation which is 10 cents higher than a year ago.

Eight students of Granite City high school, accompanied by Miss Mary Blackburn, left today for Lincoln, Ill., to compete in the three-day district meet of the National Forensic Society. Winners will go to Oklahoma City, Okla., to compete. Local entrants will be Julia Pitchford and Gloria Voigt, dramatic declamation; Robert Butler, humorous declamation; Glenn Voigt and George Harmon, original oratory; James Bundy and Randall Robertson, extemporaneous speaking.

The Madison high school track team yesterday defeated the Granite City squad 75-46 in a dual meet. James Louis, Madison, was high point man with 214 points, winning first in the high jump and broad jump. James Hackett won first place in the shot put and javelin while, being best in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes.

The Tuesday Afternoon Luncheon Bridge Club elected officers at the final meeting of the season held last Tuesday. Elected were Mrs. Henry Ratz, president and Mrs. Clarence Armstrong, secretary-treasurer. Rotating president is Mrs. C. W. Munson.

Rev. Ralph Lynn, who recently transferred from Rochester, Minn., to become pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, spoke on the Mayo Clinic at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday. The clinic at Rochester, begun seven years ago, has gained national prominence, he said.

Mrs. Orlean Padgett of Lee avenue entertained her Pinchloe Club Wednesday, with one guest in attendance. Mrs. Jesse Fuhrman. Prizes for high scores were presented to Mrs. William Cannon, Mrs. Herschel Watson, Mrs. Dorothy Rittberger and Mrs. William Stoner.

Tax books for Granite City township, delayed nearly two months by the levee district, were received Tuesday by Louis Riemann, city treasurer, and work was begun to prepare tax bills. Bills against real and personal property will be mailed out next Saturday. The rate this year is $6.30 per $100 assessed.

Eight Nameoki and Venice township residents have been elected on committees which will administer the new soil conservation program in Madison county. They are J. J. Willard, William Branding, Albert Bauer, L. H. Kable, William Hanfeler, John Bude, Henry Willard and Ernest Walker.

Books for Granite City township, delayed nearly two months by the levee district, were received Tuesday by Louis Riemann, city treasurer, and work was begun to prepare tax bills. Each club will sell tickets to the dance, and proceeds will go to the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, Chapter of Illinois. The dance will be held at Augustin's in Belleville, and a dinner will be served.

Due to the Easter vacation with no school today, there will be no monthly meeting of the Band Parents club this evening. The next meeting will be held May 1.

EASTER HUNT PARTY

An Easter egg hunt and party were held Saturday afternoon in the basement of the First Methodist Church for members of the primary department of the Sunday school. The party was given by the teachers, Mrs. David Whitwell, Mrs. Kenneth Patterson, Mrs. William Vaughn, Mrs. Wesley Clemons and Mrs. Elva Smith.

Mothers of the boys and girls assisting with the group were Mrs. Robert Black, Mrs. David Richardson, Mrs. H. H. Mrs. Meta Wilkinson, Mrs. Louis Creighton and Mrs. Ballentine. Mrs. Dorothy Hirsch showed films as a part of the entertainment.

EGG HUNT AT CHURCH

An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed Saturday by the children of the Good Shepherd EUB Church. The Youth Fellowship had charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Dornalea Peach was hostess to the Lucky Ten Plus Canasta club Friday evening in her home on Victory drive. The birthday of Mrs. Pauline Perkins was celebrated, and the club presented her with a gift.

Games were enjoyed, and prizes were awarded to all present. The hostess served a late dinner course to Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Virginia Marmion, Mrs. Faye Ryan, Mrs. Clara Warren, Mrs. Margaret Warren, Mrs. L. Parker, Mrs. Willowdell Craig, Mrs. Hilda Buzan, Mrs. Georgia Howard and Mrs. Virginia Ahrens.

Mrs. Perkins invited the club to her home on Greenwood street next month.

Cubs taking part were Tommy Green, Benny Bagby, Mike Yerger, David Lore, Glen Leat and Steve Watkins, and Webster were Randy Raymond, Randy Clark, Albert Shane and Don Martin. Adults attending were Mrs. Ann Loar and Albert Patrick and son, Terry.

George Talbot, 66, Dies; Former Madison Resident

Funeral services for George Talbot sr., 66, Charleston, Ill., a former resident of Madison, were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at a Charleston funeral home. Burial was at a Charleston cemetery.

Mr. Talbot, a retired employee of the Nickel Plate Railroad, had been residing in Charleston for the past 15 years and was born there.

Surviving are his wife, Beas, a son George Jr., stationed at a Memphis, Tenn., Naval base; a daughter, Mrs. John (Levia) Blum, Charleston; and nine grandchildren. One son, John E. Talbot and a daughter, Mrs. Frank (Sarah) Moody, both former Madison residents, preceded him in death.

Local residents attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McGovern, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Korika, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Eads, all of Granite City.

Nelson To Teach In Mark Twain Institute

Robert C. Nelson, mathematics department head at Granite City high school, has been named to this summer's teaching staff of the Mark Twain Summer Institute for academically talented high school students in the metropolitan area.

The session will be held at Clayton high school June 19 to July 28. It has been announced by Robert F. Lorenz, director of Intermediate One, Frank Lindsey, in charge. Miss Dee Snider sang, "Were You Smitten?", accompanied by Miss Linda Moser and David Corbett gave the invocation.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Donna Patterson, "The Light of the Old Rugged Cross," were presented by Mrs. Donna Dowditch, accompanied by Miss Anita Patterson. A reading, "The Empty Tomb," was given by Miss Pat Pfaff, Miss Snider led the benediction. Fifty persons were in attendance. Among them were Mrs. William Reed, superintendent of Intermediate One, Frank Lindsey, assistant superintendent, Mrs. Mary Reed, secretary, Bill Heath, Mrs. Pat Heath, Mrs. Viola Sexton, Mrs. Jean Harper, Mrs. Shirley Crow, Henry Moser, Tom McDonald, Russell Pfaff and Mrs. Deleta Wehman.

Maintenance Program At Depot Explained

A luncheon held at the Granite City Engineer Depot Friday was attended by approximately 60 supervisors, who heard a talk by E. J. Erney, chief of the Depot's Maintenance Division.

Erney spoke on the three-part "IFROAN Concept". The letters stand for Inspect, Repair, Only As Necessary, and Part I deals with current methods. Points are checked in a job processing cycle, and production cost before and after implementation of the concept are compared, he said.

Part II deals with the IFROAN laboratory's mission and capabilities and Part III includes scientific instrumentation, Erney added.
